

CODE LEGISLATION MUCH COMPLICATES POLITICAL CONDITION

Candidates For City Offices Slow to Announce Until the Legislature Is Through With Its Work.

A great deal of speculation is being indulged in among local politicians with reference to the intentions of a number of prospective candidates for municipal offices. Now that it is absolutely certain the proposed code bill will make many changes in the duties and salaries of these officers, it is thought several of the men who have announced their intentions, will change their mind.

Whatever mark is fixed to divide cities and villages it is reasonably certain that East Liverpool will with its population of 18,000 be classed among the cities of the state. When this is done there will be material changes in the manner of governing the municipalities, and several of the officers, both elective and appointive, will be less important than at present. One of the best berths, that of mayor, will under the new regulations be one of the least remunerative in the entire list.

When it is considered that heretofore the office of mayor has paid over $2,000 per year, and has been second only to that of marshal in point of salary, there is little wonder aspirants to the job have announced themselves early in order that all may know their intentions.

To the present time, though the time for a selection is more than a year off, no less than four men have been quietly at work looking after their forces. Several of these men have merely been mentioned by their friends, while others are making preparations on their own account. Those who have been mentioned in connection with the place are: O. D. Nice, president of council; T. V. Thompson, now serving as city marshal; Le Roy Orr, an operative potter, prominent in labor circles; Thomas Pickall, also a potter. Had there been no talk of a municipal code bill it is likely there would have been many who before the time expired for entering the race. As it is, however, it is extremely doubtful if even those mentioned will stand for election, as they would scarcely consider it worth the ammunition. A great many of the duties now performed by the mayor will, under the proposed bill, be assumed by the police judge, and since the majority of the citizens of East Liverpool have long advocated the placing of an officer of this kind in charge here, the change will be gratifying.

There will be a large number of candidates for the Republican nomination as city marshal also, and as nothing definite has been determined upon relative to the duties of this official, it is likely the candidates will keep up their canvass throughout the winter, or until the code bill is passed. The position of marshal is a good one, paying nearly $3,000 a year, and it is likely few changes will be made that will effect the importance of the office. Those mentioned in connection with this berth are: Clifford Dawson, Henry Aufderheide, Homer Mains, all members of the local police force; Ed. Ryan, a prominent operative potter, and John Sellers, mail carrier.

BACK FROM ABROAD

William Erlanger, Jr., And Family Had a Delightful Visit in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. William Erlanger, Jr., and children, Julius and Miss Esther, have arrived home from an extended trip through Europe. The party has been absent since the latter part of May. Mr. Erlanger's mother resides at Fuerth, Germany, and the family made that city their headquarters while visiting the points of interest in the old country.

The trip throughout was a most delightful one, and was enjoyed by them to the utmost. It had been seven years since Mr. Erlanger had visited his native country. On the return trip the family took passage on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which boat broke its previous records by several hours, making the trip in 5 days and 15 hours.

PRESIDENT HURT

Trolley Car Strikes His Carriage, Killing One Man and Injuring Another.

Pittsfield, Mass., Sept. 3.—(Special.)

A drag containing the president's party, bound from Pittsfield to Lenox this morning, was in a wreck, and for a time the most alarming rumors prevailed. As it was one man was killed and another perhaps fatally injured. The president was uninjured, aside from a few scratches, and bruises. According to a telephone message from the Country club, the drag containing the party was struck by an electric car at a crossing. The horses attached were instantly killed. The president escaped with a few bruises and a badly scratched face. Secret Service Agent Craig was killed and D. J. Pratt, the driver of the coach, had his skull fractured.

None of the rest of the party were hurt.

THE RAILROAD COMPANY WANTS TO RUSH WORK

Few people of the city are aware of the magnitude of the work being done by the Pennsylvania Railroad company in an effort to provide facilities for the rapid transit of freight to and from the industrial plants within the city limits.

It is regarded almost as an assured fact that the great Wabash will be operating in the city before long, and to this is credited the movements of the Pennsylvania. For several years freight traffic has been increasing. Now there is so much that the road cannot handle it. The Pennsylvania has at last taken the matter up and is hastening to mend matters.

Following the giving of big contracts to W. H. Ford, of Cleveland, for the erection of two stone culverts at the West End, to be built in the place of the old ones, the company is trying to give a contract which will triple the West End jobs, which are now in progress.

Contractor John Ryan has been asked to make an estimate on the excavation of the side hill running from Thompson's pottery to the power house. The route is to be of sufficient width to allow the laying of another track. Mr. Ryan doubts whether he can accept such a job. He will give the company an answer this week.

MISSING YOUNG MAN FOUND IN CANONSBURG

John Hague, better known as John Frederick, residing at 506 Calcutta road, went to Canonsburg, Pa., Monday afternoon, and not until yesterday evening did his mother learn where her son was. The exclusive statement was published in this paper last evening that representatives of out of town potteries were in the city Monday to secure mould runners. A Jiggerman from Canonsburg asked young Hague to leave town with him, and the offer was accepted. Monday morning young Hague went home and told his mother he was going to sell canes. Shortly afterwards the other members of the household went to view the parade. Then young Hague slipped home, gathered his clothing and left for Canonsburg. Finally Mrs. Hague heard that her son had gone to Canonsburg to work for William Maley as a mould runner.

This report was verified last evening when Mrs. Hague telephoned to Canonsburg.

ROBBED OF JEWELRY WHILE AT A HOTEL

Miss Pearl Grafton, a teacher at the Grant street public school, has reported to a number of friends the loss of three beautiful rings which she valued very highly, and each being a gift she regrets very much the loss. While at Smith's Ferry on last Saturday she lost them. She was with a number of lady friends and went to a hotel for supper. She took the rings off to wash her hands and when she looked for them 15 minutes later they were not to be found. Diligent search was made by the hotel people and the police and one suspect was arrested, but the rings could not be traced. One was a diamond, another an opal set with diamonds and the other an opal.

A BONAZA OIL WELL ON THE CARSON FARM

Miller & Murray struck another big oil well on the Samuel Carson farm, near Fairview, W. Va., last evening. The estimated flow is from 100 to 120 barrels per day. Another well on the same farm will probably be in tomorrow.

There are 12 rigs in process of construction in the Carson field, four each on the Carson, Ramsey and Bell farms.

There are 19 flowing wells on the Samuel Carson farm alone.

CONFERENCE HELD AT CITY HALL TODAY ON CODE LEGISLATION

Representative Crist Meets Councilmen and the City Officials In Earnest Consultation.

Representative D. W. Crist, accompanied by Mayor W. C. Fogo and City Solicitor Boyd, of Wellsville, arrived in this city at 1:30 today and met with the council and all the city officials in consultation on what East Liverpool desires on code legislation. Mr. Crist desired to consult the council and the city officials as to their judgment on several points which the Nash code will contain.

The most important point is that with reference to how the two boards which every city is entitled to and shall be constituted. The bill says the board of public service shall be elected and then the board of public safety shall be appointed by the mayor, and Representative Crist gave as his opinion that the Nash code would be the only one adopted by the legislature.

The majority of the council just now do not feel able or qualified to express an opinion on account of the fact that they have only today received true copies of the bill and it is not probable that Representative Crist will be given any definite opinion from them. The consultation is most interesting and many obscure points on the proposed bill are being made clear by the representative's explanations.

UNCONSCIOUS

JOHN McKNIGHT FELL IN THE STREET TODAY.

He is in a Critical Condition From Heat Prostration.

John McKnight, of Kensington, who with his wife and child, have been the guests of John Smith and family for several days, fell on Sixth street this afternoon near the Diamond, as the result of heat prostration. He was carried to Reed's drug store and a physician was called. Fully 20 minutes were required to bring the man to consciousness.

Dr. Norris, the physician called, anticipates no fatal results, though the man was for a time in an extremely critical condition.

NOT PROGRESSING FAST

Work on the McKinley School Building Needs to Be Hastened.

A. L. Thayer, of New Castle, architect of the new McKinley school building, was in the city yesterday, inspecting the work on the structure. To a member of the board of education Mr. Thayer said that the construction of the building was not advancing as fast as he desired, and unless more haste was made the completion of the building ready for occupancy by December 1 would not be likely.

The stonemasons are about through with their part of the contract, as they are now about to finish the foundation. After that work is completed construction will be more rapid, for the bricklayers and carpenters will next take up the work.

THE OYSTER SEASON

Is Now Open and the Bivalves Are Reported Unusually Good.

The first oysters of the season have arrived. Large shipments are coming on every express train. Dealers who handle oysters in large quantities say that not for years have the oysters been so well developed as this season. Not only have the oysters grown big during their recuperation time, but those that have been received here so far are unusually fat. Their green shell and well shaped figure are taken by the initiated as an indication of their healthy condition.

No one seems to know much about the oyster. Wet seasons are supposed to be beneficial because a greater quantity of soil is then washed into the bay and rivers upon which the bivalves can feed. The cool weather this summer, it is thought, had something to do with the improvement. The oyster is, however, a mysterious thing.

AT PLAINTIFF'S COST

Petition for Injunction Against West End Pottery Dismissed.

Lisbon, September 3.—(Special.)—The case of William A. Calhoun, of East Liverpool, against the West End Pottery company was dismissed yesterday at the plaintiff's cost by Judge Hale.

Calhoun attempted to enjoin the company from building an addition to its plant, claiming the board of directors had not been regularly elected.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

AMERICA VS. ENGLAND.

The manufacturing potters of this part of the country are likely soon to open a trade war with the English manufacturers. If the present partially arranged plans are carried out it will be a case of the American manufacturer saying to the foreign manufacturer, "Go back and sit down." A high authority on crockery in this city makes the statement. Reports of the treasury department show that the importations of crockery are rapidly increasing in volume, and that the highest class of English and German ware is being imported into the East. This cannot be helped. New York is said to be flooded with money, and the people who have it care nothing for prices, if they get what they want. The class of ware, especially novelties, which is in such demand is that not to be found in an American pottery. True, some beautiful novelties are made in the art potteries in the United States, and very frequently some neat designs are to be found in the general ware potteries of East Liverpool. But manufacturing novelties in the general ware potteries is not at an end. As a rule the general ware manufacturers have not commenced to make novelties of a high class order. This is not to continue. High class novelties, such as are made in England, are to be made in this city. The preliminary steps with that end in view have been taken by one of the large firms in this city recently, and if plans do not go amiss, East Liverpool will be producing a class of ware that was never before produced here. What is to be made and the policy to be followed in reaching out after the trade that is now in the tight grasp of the English manufacturer are known to a comparatively few in this city. There are a few potteries in this city which are in a position to make ware of just as high class as is made by the manufacturer across the water. They have the facilities and the workmen and the belief of many is that the time is not far distant when the name of this city will be known around the world for fine ware. As American tradesmen are shrewd the result of the trade war is not in doubt.

DEMAND HIGH CLASS WARE.

Since his return to the East End, Arthur Mountford, art director of the large Laughlin potteries, is telling some interesting facts concerning the class of ware now being demanded in the east, especially in New York city. Mr. Mountford learned while in the east that it was not the price of the ware that was taken into consideration in these days, but the class. Price apparently is a secondary consideration, and anything that has a real touch of art about it is soon disposed of. Even more. Buyers for the exclusive houses in New York cannot fill their orders fast enough. Too good a class of ware cannot be purchased. Such conditions were never known to prevail before. These buyers are given an order by a customer of means, and he immediately leaves for England to select the most artistic ware and designs in crockery that can be obtained. High class ware is being imported into New York on a larger scale than ever known before, and unheard of prices are being paid for it. Of course this class of ware does not touch the home markets, and does not conflict with the sales of the local potteries to eastern customers. The local pottery manufacturers have the staple lines all to themselves. The market is steady and the sales of the western manufacturers in the east is constantly increasing. They will increase more rapidly than ever before. That seems certain.

WANT TO COME OVER.

William Burgess, who recently returned to his home in this city from the pottery districts of England, tells an interesting story about some of the English pottery workers. "The potteries of the old countries are running very slow just at present," said Mr. Burgess, "and trade is seemingly dull. Many of the English pottery workmen would like to come to this country, and in more than one instance I was asked by these men to bring them over to East Liverpool. Of course I could not do that, but this will give you an illustration how the pottery workmen of England are faring."

RECEIVED BAD NEWS.

Charles Smith, employed at the Pioneer pottery at Wellsville as dipper, but who makes his home in the city, received the sad news of the death of his youngest brother, Robert, at Canonsburg, Pa., last evening. Mr. Smith went to the postoffice more for pleasure than anything else, as he gets his mail by carrier, and when he was handed a letter he was much surprised. It had been in the postoffice for several days. When he made a perusal of the contents and found that his brother had died three weeks ago his surprise was turned to sorrow.

ABOUT COMPLETED.

The new decorating kilns at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery are about finished and it will in a day or so be used for the first time. The gas connections have been made and the kilns are now being inclosed. When working satisfactorily the company will demolish the old decorating kilns and in their place put a new double kiln. This improvement will just double the decorating kiln capacity of the plant. The East Liverpool Pottery company is having an excellent business in the lines made at the Chetwynd plant.

BECAME HOMESICK.

John Snervis and John Lane, of Trenton, N. J., arrived in the city several days ago for the purpose of securing positions in local potteries as kilnhands. They did not tarry long, and a friend of theirs states that when they realized how far they were away from home it frightened them to such an extent that they beat a hasty retreat. Snervis was for a few years in the Klondike region and stayed there only long enough to get money sufficient to get him back home.

GONE TO TRENTON.

Vice President Frank Hutchins, of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, located in Trenton, who has been spending several days in the city attending sessions of the national executive board, has returned to his home. Mr. Hutchins, it appears, is doing some excellent work in forming new locals in Trenton, and it will be only a question of time when he will have all the Trenton operatives organized into locals of their own.

INTERESTING MEETING.

Jiggermen's local No. 12 last evening donated $25 to the Mine Workers' association, for the benefit of the striking miners. A report of the special committee upon the matter of forming a uniform day's work, or to have a limit to all jiggermen's work, was made, but the committee will not be ready to make a final report for a few weeks.

BEAUTIFUL BANNER.

The new banner received by local No. 44, of Sebring, is said to be a beautiful piece of work. It is of elegant design, of red, white and blue, heavily trimmed and fringed with gold. It bears the inscription of the union, and in the center is a picture of decorated ware, bowl and pitcher, two pieces of a toilet set.

ENGAGED NO ONE.

Manager Wolf, of the Shenango pottery, New Castle, was in the city for several days in search of kinhands. He was compelled to return home without a single man.

MURRAY IS ILL.

John Murray, a presser at the Oliver plant at Sebring, is unable to work, being threatened with fever. He is well known in this city.

CONTROLLING THE RIVER

The Idea of a Railroad Company Ever Doing it is Absurd.

To the Editor of the News Review:

A local paper yesterday affords an amusing case of a man being scared before he is hurt. It intimates and even suspects the Pennsylvania company of having sinister designs upon the Ohio river for forever disposing of it as a competing commercial thoroughfare by draining its waters or depleting its course or securing a monopoly of the entire river front.

To a sane man the feasibility of any one of these methods is alike absurd. Were it to secure possession of all the private property between its track and the river and throughout the entire length of the corporate limits it could have but little or no effect on river commerce or the city's shipping facilities, so long as the city has control of its own thoroughfares. First street is plated its entire length to low water mark. All the north and south streets of course terminate at the river. What more is the city or shippers to want? They forever control the situation. Let the Ohio river improvement agitation go on until the work already authorized shall be completed and the great object in view shall be fully attained—a nine foot stage of water all the year 'round from Pittsburg to Cairo.

I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement.

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

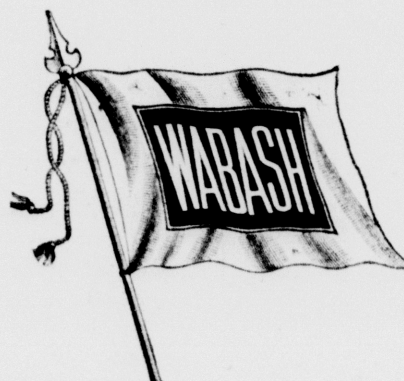

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Thedford's Black-Draught.

The Democratic party has failed to find an issue in the year 1902 simply because there is none on which opposition politics can be intelligently
based. But Democrats can console themselves with the fact that no issues
is as profitable as the rejected issues
the party has been chasing for forty years. It abandoned the issue of sound money and left Mr. Cleveland
in the lurch because he had a different opinion as to that movement. Free silver is as dead as Bryan's hope of ever gaining the presidency. All the other issues that the Democrats fought for in the past are dead, and the Democracy is reduced to the necessity of opposing Republican men and Republican policies simply on party grounds
and without reason.

The Beaver valley business men are showing themselves awake to the importance of improving the Ohio river.
The business men of East Liverpool
and Wellsville should imitate their example. Every mass meeting held and every resolution adopted will have its influence. Congress can be impressed with the necessity for hastening the work which the government has undertaken and induced to carry out the wishes of the people if the present agitation is kept up. East Liverpool should join heartily in the general petition.

The Democrats of the nation are enrolled with the anti's, if their campaign literature is to be believed. They do not openly advocate hauling down the flag, but it is hard to discover what they desire if not that. The specter of imperialism still haunts them, but sensible Americans will not be terrified by something that does not exist.

Factionalism in politics does not
pay. The warring Republicans in Vermont can now see where they made a mistake. Neither side scores a pronounced victory. But there is no probability that those stubborn Yankees,
even though their fighting blood is up,
will let their local quarrels affect the
result on national issues.

Even in Europe they are finding Roosevelt's New England speeches interesting reading. The chaps who wanted a definition of the Monroe doctrine have had their wishes gratified,
and still they are not happy.

Tom Johnson is to tour the state
with a circus tent, an automobile, ten wagons, a cooking outfit and a chaplain. He is bound to make himself conspicuous, and finds it easier to do so than to bring the Democratic party

of Ohio into prominence.

The way to prevent tariff tinkering
in the next congress is to elect men
to that body who are friends of prosperity and protection.

Condemnation of the American soldier is one of the strong features of the Democratic campaign text book.
Do the leaders of that party fancy that
that issue will win them any votes?

The wise thing to do to find out what East Liverpool desires in the way
of code legislation is to call a mass meeting. The mayor and council should attend to the matter at once.

Thank goodness the present war is not likely to be productive of any embroidered beef scandal or any Santiago victory controversy.

The Democratic campaign text book,
in enumerating the afflictions of the country, forgets to mention either Tillman or Bryan.

Tom Johnson thinks he can supply
the Democrats both with the man and
the issue.

The game law no longer protects the straw hat.

OBITUARY

John W. Pickal.

After a lingering illness extending over several months, John W. Pickal died at his home, 313 Lincoln avenue,
at 1 o'clock this morning. Mr. Pickal was one of the best known and most respected citizens, and his death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. His death was due to nervous prostration. He was born on a farm three miles north of this city, near Calcutta, but removed to East Liverpool in his early youth, and has resided here ever since. In 1866 he was united in marriage to Miss Isabella Pollock, and a few years later engaged in the grocery business, which he carried on successfully for more than 30
years. A little over a year ago Mr.
Pickal gave up his business and devoted his time for a few months previous to his death as an insurance agent.
He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. James A. Todd; three brothers, Thomas and Daniel Pickal,
and one sister, Mrs. Hoyt, of Atwater,
O. Mr. Pickal was a conscientious Christian, having been a member of the First M. E. church here almost since his infancy. He was a prominent Odd Fellow and a member of the Mystic Circle. He served as a private in the Sixth West Virginia infantry during the rebellion, and was connected with the local G. A. R. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

apoplexy. Services will be held over the remains at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Fred Fry, a daughter, at 5 Woodland avenue, East End, Cleveland. On Friday the body will be taken to Wellsville for interment. His wife, who died about two years ago, is buried there. Mr.
Gore was born in Hanover a little over 65 years ago. He was a C. & P. freight engineer for nearly twenty years, leaving that work about 20 years ago.
He resided in Wellsville for several years but had long lived in Cleveland,

His wife was Elizabeth Montgomery, of Wellsville. Six children survive.

AT THE THEATER

The three acts into which "David Harum" are divided are laid in Home-ville, New York. In the first act Har-
um sells the deacon the balky horse.
In the second the audience sees the pious man caught in a terrible shower
behind the animal that would "stand without hitching," and in the third Harum tells the story of his visit to the circus and of the whipping which followed. The play is crowned with amusing incidents and has had an overwhelming amount of success. It is said to be the most popular native
play descriptive of American humor
now before the public. At the Grand

HEALTH BOARD

Orders Abatement of an Alleged Nuisance And General Cleaning Up.

A special meeting of the board of health was called last evening for the purpose of condemning the vault at the rear of Mrs. Frances A. Lawson's property on Broadway, near Third street, which is considered a nuisance and also to transact other business.

Daniel T. Lawson, the husband, appeared at the meeting and stated that the vault was not a nuisance and if the board condemned it without first listening to his witnesses in the matter he would start an action in court against them.

A resolution was read and passed by the board which condemned the vault as unsafe for the health of the public and which also gave the health officer, Dr. Tarr, authority to have it cleaned and the vault abated. The board gave Mr. Lawson a limit of 15 days in which to have its orders carried out. If the work is not done by that time Dr. Tarr will take the matter in charge. Mr. Lawson stated that they would connect with the sanitary sewer.

Mayor Fogo reported that the improvement committee of council had done nothing relative to the cleaning up of the streets of the city. Dr. Tarr was ordered by the board to attend to the matter at once, and have all of the filth taken from the streets.

THE PENNSYLVANIA UNION PARTY

State Committee Holds Meeting and Selects Officers of the Convention.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—The state convention of the Union party will convene in Musical Fund hall here at 11 o'clock today. The leaders of the party expect about 500 delegates, representing nearly every county in the state, in attendance. A large number of delegates are already here, but the majority of them will not arrive before morning. The indications last night were that the Democratic state ticket nominated at Erie would be endorsed. There is a big minority and a strong fight will be made to have the convention either endorse Samuel W. Pennypacker, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, or nominate an independent ticket.

The state committee of the party held a meeting at the Continental hotel last night and selected the officers of the convention. It was unanimously decided that Thomas L. Hicks, ex-postmaster of Philadelphia, shall be temporary chairman. Colonel George E. Mapes, of this city, will be secretary, and C. E. Boyer, of Lebanon; ex-Representative Plummer E. Jeffries, of Chester county, and Henry Davis, of Allegheny, will be assistant secretaries.

Colonel A. K. McClure, of this city, one of the original leaders of the Union party, yesterday sent a letter to State Chairman Frank M. Ritter, resigning as a member of the Union state committee. Mr. McClure says that he will support Judge Penny packer for governor.

John B. Rendall, ex-representative of Chester county, offered a resolution, which was adopted with only one dissenting vote, declaring it to be the sentiment of the state committee that the convention should endorse Robert E. Pattison for governor and George W. Guthrie for lieutenant governor, and that an independent Republican should be nominated for secretary of internal affairs.

Committees on credentials and on platform were appointed. The credentials committee was to sit all night and report to the state committee at 8:30 a. m.

Hancock County Nominations Include a Woman for School Superintendent.

The following nominations were made at the Democratic convention held in the court house at New Cumberland last Monday afternoon: Superintendent of schools, Miss Jane Stewart, primary teacher at Chester last year; clerk of county court, Frank Carson, who taught at Grandview last year; clerk of county court, Paul Cullen; house of delegates, Robert Ramsey; county commissioner, George Owens.

It is something unusual for a woman to appear as a candidate for a political office, although a candidate for the similar office in Brooke county is a woman. Inasmuch as the franchise is not extended to the fair sex in West Virginia, a question has naturally arisen as to whether Miss Stewart could constitutionally hold the office for which she is a candidate. Prosecuting Attorney McKenzie as well as many other Hancock county citizens, believe that under the present state constitution no woman can hold office.

DECIDED TO BUILD

Presbyterians of Chester Will Buy a Lot and Erect a Church.

The meetings of the Chester Presbyterians last evening for organizing a church, was well attended. It was decided to secure a site on Indiana avenue, between Fourth and Fifth streets. Two lots will be purchased from the Southside Land company, through E. C. Baxter. The price will be $800. A substantial frame building will be erected and a regular pastor employed.

The Presbyterians are very numerous in Chester. Rev. Mr. Green, pastor of the Fairview church, has been conducting services twice a month in the M. E. church. A subscription will be started at once. Help is expected from presbytery and from the First church of East Liverpool.

Paving Will Be Pushed.

The bond commission appointed at a recent meeting of the Chester council will meet Monday for the purpose of opening bids for the sale of bonds, the money from which is to be used in the paving of some streets of Chester. As the season is getting late, many residents are of the opinion

Jr. O. U. A. M. Meeting.

The Jr. O. U. A. M., at their last meeting, initiated Frank Cunningham. A number of recruits have been secured by the order recently. The outlook is very bright for the Chester council. Allison, who is state vice councillor, will also be at the state council.

New Wells Located.

Three new wells have been located in the vicinity of the Finicum well by Critchlow Brothers. Two have been located on the Homer Dawson farm, while another has been located on the Dr. Frank Laughlin farm. The outlook for all three wells being producers is said to be exceedingly bright.

To The Public.

One of the crying needs of East Liverpool has in the past been inability to secure first class service in the matter of dairy products. This want has now been filled. W. N. McDonald has opened an establishment at 188 Avondale street, which for excellent equipment and perfect facilities for carrying on a dairy business are unsurpassed in the state. Mr. McDonald has a thorough practical knowledge of the business, and is prepared for a service never before equaled in this city.

A new delivery wagon has been started and will be under the personal direction of Mr. McDonald at all times. He will handle nothing but the purest of Jersey milk. He will also furnish Pasturized cream together with the very choicest of creamery butter. Your patronage solicited.

GREAT GROWTH OF CITY SCHOOLS

Interesting Facts Regarding East Liverpool Educators and Their Work.

THE CRY FOR MORE ROOM

All the Buildings Now Taxed to Their Utmost Capacity—The High School One of the Best—Wonderful Growth.

Between the summer and winter, When leaves are beginning to fall, Comes a pause in the cycle of pleasures.

Which is known to the children all.

They hear in the distance ringing.

The tones of the well known bell, They are loath to forsake their pastimes.

To obey its deep toned knell.

And so it is that from the various Launts of pleasure one beheld the little ones, some scarce daring to boast their six summers, enter, for the first time, the great educational arena to gather with those whose school days are soon to be viewed with a retrospective glance.

In anticipation of that great event, the re-opening of school, a great part of the vacation was occupied in the thorough renovation of all the buildings in the city. Many of the school rooms were equipped with new and modern desks, and in all the buildings changes of more or less importance had been made.

While it is impossible at this early stage in the year's work to state the exact number of pupils enrolled in the schools of the city, 2,800 is considered a safe estimate. In order to direct the instruction of these young people, 66 teachers—59 women and 7 men—have been employed for the ensuing year. There are also seven substitutes. This is quite the largest corps of teachers ever in the employ of the city schools.

That the people of the Crockery City, which is known far and wide as a bustling, business town, are realizing the necessity of more liberal education upon the part of the rising generation, as well as the acquisition of wealth, is evident from the fact that upon every side is heard the same cry for more school room. That this city has been making great strides along educational lines is due largely to the untiring efforts of Supt. R. E. Rayman. The buildings are all taxed to their fullest capacity. Especially is this so in the Central school, where the growth of the high school has required the entire second floor save two rooms to be given over to its use. The high school thus occupies six rooms for seating, two recitation rooms and two laboratory rooms.

At the present time there are enrolled in the high school 265 students. This is unprecedented in the history of the school. In the five years during which Prof. Rayman has been superintendent the increase in the high school alone has been over 79 per cent. The curriculum is much broader than it was at that time and quite a number of the studies have been made elective.

A law passed by the state legislature requires that the high schools be classified into a first and second grade. The first grade high schools are those having a four-years' course and ample apparatus for the efficient teaching of the science work in the courses. The second class comprises schools having a three-year course, etc.

State School Commissioner Bonebrake has already passed upon the high school in this city and classed it as one of the first. The course is highly satisfactory, since its graduates are received at any of the best colleges in the state.

It has been the desire of a quite a number of people to have the one session plan introduced in the city high school, as in Cleveland, where the hours are 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., with the afternoon for study and recreation, or as in the Columbus high school, which has a session lasting from 8:30 to 2:30. But this plan, while meeting the approval and convenience of a few people, would be very unpleasant to the majority on account of local reasons. It has never, therefore, even been considered by the superintendent and school authorities.

A few notes about those who are to teach in the high school this year will be found interesting. The corps is composed of nine teachers. Miss Florence Updegraff has most ably occupied the position of principal for the past 12 years. She will have charge of the classes in literature. C. T. Austin will teach English. He graduated from Mt. Union with the class of '99. Miss Martha Cooper, the Latin teacher, graduated from the woman's college at Oxford, O., and later entered Wooster university. She has had several years' experience as teacher in the high school.

Miss Nell Campbell teaches geometry and advanced algebra. She took part of her work at Mt. Union and her advanced work at the University of Michigan. She has taught for four years at the Ashland high school. Miss Elma G. Martin has charge of the history work. She took her advanced work at Vassar and prepared especially for history and language work. She also gave special attention to German and French. J. E. Brooke, who teaches physics and chemistry, is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university. He has had several year's experience as teacher in the high school.

Miss Mary Andrews is a graduate from the high school in this city and has taken a special course during the past summer at Harvard. She teaches physical geography. Miss Jessie Manley, teacher in bookkeeping and freshman algebra, is also a graduate of the local high school. Miss Bertha Dunlap will have two classes in Latin. She is a graduate of the city high school and has taken special work in advanced algebra and Latin at Wooster.

A neat and complete catalogue of the city schools is nearing completion and will probably be issued the last of the month.

It is expected that the new McKinley building will be completed by the first of December and when it is, there will not be so much overcrowding.

PELEE STILL ACTIVE.

FEARS ENTERTAINED FOR PEOPLE ON MARTINIQUE ISLAND.

French Government Sends Warships to Basse-Terre to Await Further Orders.

Paris, Sept. 3.—The minister of marine, Pellatin, in view of the further eruptions of Mont Pelee, island of Martinique, has ordered the commander of the French Antilles squadron to send warships immediately to Basse-Terre, island of Guadeloupe, there to await further orders.

The minister of the colonies received yesterday an undated cable dispatch from the governor of Martinique reporting that a slight earthquake shock moved from north to south of the island during the morning of Aug. 25, and adding that the same night and the next morning violent eruptions of Mont Pelee occurred.

Kingston, St. Vincent, B. W. I., Sunday, Aug. 31.—A remarkable volcanic phenomenon occurred here between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. There was a startling series of detonations from La Soufriere, louder than any since the terrible eruption of May 11. Each explosion shook the buildings of the town. The noises were terrific.

Telegraphic reports have been received here from the islands of Grenada, Trinidad and Barbados, saying loud detonations were heard at these respective places between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. These explosions were similar to those heard when Mont Pelee, on Martinique, and La Soufriere were previously in eruption. The people of Grenada were greatly alarmed at the detonations; they were the loudest which have been heard there. The phenomenon was not attended by serious results on St. Vincent, but fears are entertained here for people on the island of Martinique, as Mont Pelee is known to be still terribly agitated, two eruptions having occurred there in the last six days.

1,060 Killed, 1,500 Injured.

Basse-Terre, Island of Guadeloupe, French West Indies, Sept. 3.—It has been learned from the gendarmes of the island of Martinique that 1,060 persons were killed and 1,500 injured during the last eruptions of Mont Pelee.

Most of the people of this city undoubtedly have laughed during the last few days in unison with practically the entire English speaking race. The cause of the merriment has been a poster, just put out by the "Force" Food Company, of which a picture is shown above.

The first time one sees this poster he thinks the bill poster must have made a mistake in putting it up. The second time he sees it he is inclined to the belief that something must have been wrong with the bill poster. After seeing it a number of times it begins to dawn upon him that perhaps it was done by design. This last conjecture is the true one, for this poster has been put up in every city of over 2,000 inhabitants in the United States, Canada, England and the rest of the United Kingdom. When you laugh at it, therefore, you may know that you are probably laughing with the greater part of the world.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS ON TRUSTS.

Defines His Attitude and Fully Answers Critics—Guest of Governor Crane.

Dalton, Mass., Sept. 3.—President Roosevelt yesterday took notice of his return visit to Massachusetts by delivering at Fitchburg another speech on the trust question in order that he might fully answer his critics and to more clearly define his attitude on the subject. He also launched into a defense of the army of the Philippines during his speech at Springfield. The impression had gone forth that any views he might express regarding the acquisition of territory by the United States would be sure to be coldly received, but the demonstrations of approval which greeted his utterances dispelled this idea.

Frequent stops again were made yesterday and at each place the president delivered a speech. Fitchburg's reception was notable for the size of the crowd and the enthusiasm which the people displayed.

In the afternoon, at Worcester, the president lunched with Senator Hoar. At Springfield another hearty greeting was given the president. The address there followed a brief visit to the national armory. On the way to he train the president's carriage stopped in front of the Veterans' Memorial home and he spoke a few words to the old soldiers who had drawn up in front of the house.

At Westfield, the scene of the boyhood days of the president's secretary, a stop of half an hour was made. Applause was loud and continuous when he mentioned the secretary's name.

Governor Crane last night had the president as his guest here. Early in the morning the president and his entourage party were given a drive from Dalton to Stockbridge, passing through Pittsfield and Lenox.

FIRST ACCIDENT IN MIMIC WAR

One Man Killed, One Fatally Injured and One Seriously Injured.

Fort Wright, Fishers Island, N. Y., Sept. 3.—While the guns of the fort were firing on the fleet yesterday, Elard Roy was instantly killed by the premature discharge of a 12-inch gun. Harry A. Davis was seriously injured and a third man, Samuel Cleveland, was severely wounded. Several others suffered slight injuries. All the men were privates of the Second company, coast artillery, of the regular army.

New London, Conn., Sept. 3.—The defending force in the New London district last night were alert and awaiting an attack by the navy. At midnight no decisive move had been made by the fleet under Admiral Higginson.

The impression prevails here that Newport is the point which will be next attacked.

The defending force is all at sea in regard to the next move to be made by Admiral Higginson and every possible precaution has been taken to guard against a surprise.

NAVAL OFFICIAL SURPRISED.

Criticism of Admiral Higginson Is Unwarranted.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The officials of the navy department are surprised at the amount of criticism which has been aroused by the visit of the Duchess of Marlborough, Assistant Secretary of War Sanger and a party to Rear Admiral Higginson aboard his flagship, the Kearsarge. It is not the understanding among the officials here that Admiral Higginson invited the party to come aboard, although they see no reason why he should not have extended an invitation, as the visit was made during the "period of preparation," and not during the time when the attacking movement of the fleet had begun. Moreover, they point to precedents, cases where hospitalities and courtesies were extended to persons outside the service during actual war. When the Oregon was at Guantanamo, a large party of Red Cross nurses, among them Miss Chandler, a daughter of William Astor Chandler, was taken aboard and entertained, and given a respite from the cramped quarters and the monotony of a hospital ship. There has not been, and is not apt to be, any inquiry from the navy department of Admiral Higginson concerning the matter.

Row Among Italians.

Dillonvale, O., Sept. 3.—Five drunken Italians harked and shot one another in Dominick Ozello's speaking until it resembled a slaughterhouse. Ozello was shot near the heart; a second Italian through the arm, and a third through the kidneys, all by one man. He also shot a fourth victim, who had already been stabbed and who was afterwards spirited away. A Slav participant was stabbed and a gash cut in his head with a hatchet. Two may die.

WAS CURED OF
SCIATIC RHEUMATISM
BY THE USE OF
LIFE PLANT.

J. G. Cotton writes from New Philadelphia, O., the following praise for the great tonic, LIFE PLANT:—

New Philadelphia, O., Feb. 22, 1902. Life Plant Co.,
Messrs:—Last September I was attacked with Sciatic rheumatism. It was so painful as to allow me to sleep very little, could not stand on my feet ten minutes at a time without severe pain. I was very much alarmed as I had the same trouble a number of years ago and was unable, though attended by the best medical skill, to get rid of it for two and a half years, during which time I could perform no labor. A friend told me that LIFE PLANT was a sure cure for rheumatism. I took two bottles and it cured me; I have had no return of it since. I am not only pleased, but surprised as well at the speedy cure.

Very truly,

POCOHONTAS GUARDS DOUBLED.

It is Feared the Strikers May Make Another Attack at Any Hour. Many Shots Fired From Ambush. Elkhorn Region Quiet.

Bramwell, W. Va., Sept. 3.—The situation in the Flat Top coal field is extremely critical and the skirmishes between the strikers and the guards at the Pocohontas Collieries company's mines yesterday, after the firing of the mine by the strikers, has greatly enraged the miners from the fact that several of their side were severely injured. Adjutant General Baker, who has been in this section for a few days looking over the territory, left at midnight Monday night for other fields, informing the operators before he left, however, that he thought the presence of the militia unnecessary at that time. The outbreak of yesterday probably will change his opinion, and it is thought here that before tonight troops will be either in the Flat Top region or on their way there. The Pocohontas Collieries company had the fire in their mine practically extinguished last night, but had doubled their force of guards, as another attack was feared any hour. Many shots have been fired from ambush in the direction of non-union miners going to and from work in the Flat Top field. The Elkhorn region is very quiet, no violence having been reported from that section yesterday.

NO CHANGE, SAYS MITCHELL.

Miners Still Stand by Demands or Will Arbitrate.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 3.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, returned from Philadelphia last evening. He stated that he was pleased with his trip and reception in the Quaker City. So far as he was aware there was no change in the strike situation. The miners were as determined as ever and did not propose to return to work until the operators granted their demands or agreed to arbitration. Mr. Mitchell said he took no stock in the reports that certain mines were in operation and were turning out a large amount of coal for the market.

The Bloss and Pettebone collieries of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company resumed operations yesterday. The breakers were running all day, but just how many men are at work in the mines and what the output of coal is not known. The officials of the company refuse to give out any information beyond the fact that they are well satisfied with the situation.

Warrants for Pay of Troops.

Harrisburg, Sept. 3.—Adjutant General Stewart issued warrants yesterday for the pay of the troops on duty in the anthracite coal region from July 31 to Aug. 31, inclusive. The warrants were forwarded to General Gobin, who is in command of the troops, and it is expected the soldiers will be paid today. The amount which the various organizations will receive follows: General Gobin and staff, $2,664.81; Governor's Troop, $3,435.28; Eighth regiment, $32,250.56; Fourth regiment, $6,640.84; Twelfth regiment, $36,648.99. Total, $81,740.48.

Last to Be Shipped.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 2.—Another train of cars loaded with anthracite coal left yesterday from the Silver Creek shaft, near New Philadelphia, owned and operated by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. Strike leaders claim to have information that this is the last coal to be shipped from this operation until after the strike is declared off.

BY AUTOMOBILE

A Tour of California is Being Made —East Liverpool Lady in the Party.

The following item of local interest is found in the Redlands (Cal.) Review of recent date:

"D. Vincent and wife of Los Angeles, accompanied by Miss Anna Gardner of East Liverpool, Ohio, arrived in the city last night and stopped over night at the Windsor hotel. They are traveling on an automobile and are enjoying their trip very much. Mr. Vincent is an enthusiast on automobiles and has a fine machine, a White. It is propelled by steam power generated by gasoline.

"They left Los Angeles yesterday morning and took it easy, visiting Stoddard's camp, near Ontario, and having lunch in the canyon. They will take a trip over the Heights and around Redlands before starting on to Riverside. Mr. Vincent took a run to Idylwild last month, and says that he found no difficulty in climbing the hills around Strawberry valley, and that since having this machine, for the past five months, he has not had a repair on it. Miss Gardner is from the East, and is being shown the beauties of California in this charming way. The party moving at the rate of 100 miles per day."

CHANGE IN PLANS.

General Miles' Philippine Inspection Tour Delayed.

Washington, Sept. 3.—A change has been made in the plans of Lieutenant General Miles, as announced last week. It was expected originally that he would leave on his tour of inspection of the Philippines today and sail from San Francisco on the transport Thomas on the 16th. The pressure of work in his office at present is so great, however, that he finds he will not be able to leave Washington before next Wednesday.

General Miles has called a special meeting of the army board on ordnance and fortification for Sept. 9, at which time it will begin the preparation of its report and recommendations upon the subject of a new field gun for the army. The date named has been selected in order to insure the attendance of those members of the board who are at present engaged in the joint manoeuvres. It is the understanding that General Miles in person will direct the work of the board, and in case the report is not drafted quickly his departure from Washington will be delayed until later in the month.

A NEW PITCHER WAS IN THE BOX

This helps to explain the slaughter of the East Liverpool Baseball Team.

CHALLIS DID HIS LEVEL BEST

But Was Not Strong Enough — The Visitors Got Eighteen Hits—It Was an Off Day, All Around, for the Home Team.

If there is a manager between the oceans that has poorer luck in trying out amateur twirlers than Charley Walsh he will confer a favor by putting out his flag. Mr. Walsh is a kind hearted gentleman, believing always in giving the would-be experts a chance, but it is now quite time for him to cut out a little of his philanthropy. The enormous crowd that assembled to see the game became completely disgusted in the early part of the contest and kept the air blue with warm remarks. And they were all about the gentleman who has the game in charge.

Challis is from New Cumberland. He had better return and keep clear of the East Liverpool ball circles. He gave the Parkersburg team as many hits as he is years old—18 all told. He is a lanky fellow and is built well, but when that is said the story is told. Please, Mr. Walsh, let the youngsters practice a little before giving them a chance. You will not lose by it. Of course, the lad was somewhat against it in having so strong a team to back. But more than likely he would have met with a similar experience had it been the Hookstown aggregation.

At no time during the present baseball season has the park been in a better condition. Fast ball can be played upon that diamond, and if any other kind is witnessed the cause must be credited to a person other than the grounds. Perhaps the assertion is too broad. There is yet plenty of room for improvement in the outfield. Had this part of the park been in condition no home run would have been credited to the visitors. The ball was knocked only a short distance out into left field. But it was far enough. Poor List, who played one of the prettiest games of the year, went fishing among the weeds for it, but to no avail. Maag finally ran to his assistance and made the find, but too late. The man had scored and let in two runs.

It was really an off day for the home boys. Reark and Heckathorn each got an error. When they fall down the goose is generally cooked. The man in the box loses heart, too. That did not occur with Challis, however.

It is only necessary to give in detail the first inning. The remainder were so bad that it would be a waste of time. Johnson, first man up, got first on an error by Davis. Adamson got the same on the same by Heckathorn. Elston went out from first to third. Klintworth was hit. O'Neil singled. Myers walked on fielder's choice and O'Neil and Farson scored on a fly ball knocked by Donovan and scored on by Reark.

The locals started off in fine shape. Maag met one for a two-bagger and Reark followed it with a single. List got there on fielder's choice and the first two scored on a two-bagger placed by Heckathorn. List finally covered the bag, making the score nearer than ever afterwards.

The McCarron brothers must now go way back. Dennis showed his ability recently and Hugh certainly gave an exhibition of his qualities yesterday. There is no doubt that both mean to do the fair thing by everyone, but they somehow can not do it. The sympathy of the crowd was with Hugh for awhile. Then it turned. It was more than could be patiently tolerated. Even the local players made a kick. Double plays were much in evidence. Donovan and Myers handled one, Adamson, Farson and Myers another and Davis and Heckathorn another.

The score:

A New Firm.
A partnership has been formed between William W. Sloan and Jacob Stein, two of East Liverpool's most successful and energetic young business men. Mr. Stein has been the leading dry goods merchant for several years, and the concern, by reason of the partnership, will be enlarged and made still more important. The establishment will then be among the largest in this section, and with the additional facilities will be amply able to handle the immense patronage in a more satisfactory manner.

William W. Sloan is well known to East Liverpool people, having spent the greater portion of his life among them. Several years ago he associated himself with a local hardware firm. So well did he manage his affairs that it was but a short time until he became part owner of the large business. From that time to the present he has demonstrated by hard work and close application, that he is qualified to take his place among the leading business men of the city. A future of unbounded success is predicted for the new firm.

Pastor Owens' Return—Rev. Oscar L. Owens returned today from his vacation, which he spent in Virginia and in New York. He will be present at the prayer meeting of the Baptist church this evening. On Friday Mr. Owens leaves to preach the annual sermon before the Zoar association, which meets at Bethesda, O.

His Mother Dead—Chief Thompson received a telegram last evening from the chief of police of Pittsburgh asking that a piano player, Walter Snowden by name, be located and informed of the news of his mother's death, which occurred yesterday morning. Snowden was soon found and apprised of the sad intelligence. He left this morning to attend the funeral.

Fruit Thieves Scared—Stealing fruit, such as grapes and pears from the yard of William Dunn, of Sixth street, is not according to law, and a number of small boys have found that out. Mr. Dunn has been troubled much of late by small boys coming in to his yard and stealing fruit, and in order to give the youngsters a good scare he called an officer. The officer lay in wait for a few minutes last evening, the boys came and he seized them. They promised not to enter the yard again.

Odd "Idea For a Serpent.

In Alsace recently a four-year-old child, the daughter of a workman, became very ill one day, but speedily recovered, and for some days afterward dismayed her parents by eating a good deal more than a child of that age is wont to eat.

Instead, however, of growing fatter, the girl grew thinner, and doctors who were summoned to attend her were unable to explain why the food did her no good. Finally the riddle was solved, for a serpent about twenty inches in length issued one morning from the child's mouth.

The serpent was killed and sent to the University of Strassburg, and since then the little one has enjoyed excellent health. It is supposed that the child swallowed the serpent while drinking some impure water.

Butterflies That Fly High.

Both in the Himalayas and in the Andes butterflies have been found at heights ranging up to 16,000 feet, and in the Alps they are quite common at 9,000 feet. The very highest elevation so far observed is 16,626 feet, where they were found by M. Bonpland on the slopes of Chimborazo. Sir J. D. Hooker found butterflies on the slopes of the Himalayas at about the same height. He speaks of "the amazing quantity of superb butterflies, many large tropical swallowtails, black, with a scarlet eye on the wings." The South American high flying butterflies belong to the family of Colia dimera, the Asiatic that of the Pieris callidice. The explorer, Sir Martin Conway, also found them at high altitudes in the Himalayas.

"He wanted to borrow an umbrella."
"Why did he telephone?"
"He wanted me to bring it over to his house."

CODE LEGISLATION MUCH COMPLICATES POLITICAL CONDITION

Candidates For City Offices Slow to Announce Until the Legislature Is Through With Its Work.

A great deal of speculation is being indulged in among local politicians with reference to the intentions of a number of prospective candidates for municipal offices. Now that it is absolutely certain the proposed code bill will make many changes in the duties and salaries of these officers, it is thought several of the men who have announced their intentions, will change their mind.

Whatever mark is fixed to divide cities and villages it is reasonably certain that East Liverpool will with its population of 18,000 be classed among the cities of the state. When this is done there will be material changes in the manner of governing the municipalities, and several of the officers, both elective and appointive, will be less important than at present. One of the best berths, that of mayor, will under the new regulations be one of the least remunerative in the entire list.

When it is considered that heretofore the office of mayor has paid over $2,000 per year, and has been second only to that of marshal in point of salary, there is little wonder applicants to the job have announced themselves early in order that all may know their intentions.

To the present time, though the time for a selection is more than a year off, no less than four men have been quietly at work looking after their forces. Several of these men have merely been mentioned by their friends, while others are making preparations on their own account. Those who have been mentioned in connection with the place are; O. D. Nice, president of council; T. V. Thompson, now serving as city marshal; Le Roy Orr, an operative potter, prominent in labor circles; Thomas Pickall, also a potter. Had there been no talk of a municipal code bill it is likely there would have been many who before the time expired for entering the race. As it is, however, is it extremely doubtful if even those mentioned will stand for election, as they would scarcely consider it worth the ammunition. A great many of the duties now performed by the mayor will, under the proposed bill, be assumed by the police judge, and since the majority of the citizens of East Liverpool have long advocated the placing of an officer of this kind in charge here, the change will be gratifying.

There will be a large number of candidates for the Republican nomination as city marshal also, and as nothing definite has been determined upon relative to the duties of this official, it is likely the candidates will keep up their canvass throughout the winter, or until the code bill is passed. The position of marshal is a good one, paying nearly $3,000 a year, and it is likely few changes will be made that will effect the importance of the office. Those mentioned in connection with this berth are: Clifford Dawson, Henry Aufderheide, Homer Mains, all members of the local police force; Ed. Ryan, a prominent operative potter, and John Sellers, mail carrier.

Mrs. Ina Phillips Charges Neglect.
Mrs. Anna Boulton Makes Serious Charges.

Lisbon, September 3.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ina Phillips, of East Liverpool, has entered suit in common pleas court for divorce against David G. Phillips. They were married in 1893, and have no children. She claims that her husband has grossly neglected her for three years, and that she has been compelled to provide for herself. She asks that her maiden name of Ina Tomlinson, be restored.

Mrs. Annie M. Boulton, of East Liverpool, has entered suit for divorce from J. E. Boulton. They were married in 1894, and they have one child. BACK FROM ABROAD

William Erlanger, Jr., And Family
Had a Delightful Visit in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. William Erlanger, Jr., and children, Julius and Miss Esther, have arrived home from an extended trip through Europe. The party has been absent since the latter part of May. Mr. Erlanger's mother resides at Fuert, Germany, and the family made that city their headquarters while visiting the points of interest in the old country.

The trip throughout was a most delightful one, and was enjoyed by them to the utmost. It had been seven years since Mr. Erlanger had visited his native country. On the return trip the family took passage on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which boat broke its previous records by several hours, making the trip in 5 days and 15 hours.

PRESIDENT HURT

Trolley Car Strikes His Carriage, Killing One Man and Injuring Another.

Pittsfield, Mass., Sept. 3.—(Special.)

A drag containing the president's party, bound from Pittsfield to Lenox this morning, was in a wreck, and for a time the most alarming rumors prevailed. As it was one man was killed and another perhaps fatally injured. The president was uninjured, aside from a few scratches, and bruises. According to a telephone message from the Country club, the drag containing the party was struck by an electric car at a crossing. The horses attached were instantly killed. The president escaped with a few bruises and a badly scratched face. Secret Service Agent Craig was killed and D. J. Pratt, the driver of the coach, had his skull fractured.

None of the rest of the party were hurt.

THE RAILROAD COMPANY WANTS TO RUSH WORK

Few people of the city are aware of the magnitude of the work being done by the Pennsylvania Railroad company in an effort to provide facilities for the rapid transit of freight to and from the industrial plants within the city limits.

It is regarded almost as an assured fact that the great Wabash will be operating in the city before long, and to this is credited the movements of the Pennsylvania. For several years freight traffic has been increasing. Now there is so much that the road cannot handle it. The Pennsylvania has at last taken the matter up and is hastening to mend matters.

Following the giving of big contracts to W. H. Ford, of Cleveland, for the erection of two stone culverts at the West End, to be built in the place of the old ones, the company is trying to give a contract which will triple the West End jobs, which are now in progress.

Contractor John Ryan has been asked to make an estimate on the excavation of the side hill running from Thompson's pottery to the power house. The route is to be of sufficient width to allow the laying of another track. Mr. Ryan doubts whether he can accept such a job. He will give the company an answer this week.

MISSING YOUNG MAN FOUND IN CANONSBURG

John Hague, better known as John Frederick, residing at 506 Calcutta road, went to Canonsburg, Pa., Monday afternoon, and not until yesterday evening did his mother learn where her son was. The exclusive statement was published in this paper last evening that representatives of out of town potteries were in the city Monday to secure mould runners. A Jiggerman from Canonsburg asked young Hague to leave town with him, and the offer was accepted. Monday morning young Hague went home and told his mother he was going to sell canes. Shortly afterwards the other members of the household went to view the parade. Then young Hague slipped home, gathered his clothing and left for Canonsburg. Finally Mrs. Hague heard that her son had gone to Canonsburg to work for William Maley as a mould runner.

This report was verified last evening when Mrs. Hague telephoned to Canonsburg.

ROBBED OF JEWELRY WHILE AT A HOTEL

Miss Pearl Grafton, a teacher at the Grant street public school, has reported to a number of friends the loss of three beautiful rings which she valued very highly, and each being a gift she regrets very much the loss. While at Smith's Ferry on last Saturday she lost them. She was with a number of lady friends and went to a hotel for supper. She took the rings off to wash her hands and when she looked for them 15 minutes later they were not to be found. Diligent search was made by the hotel people and the police and one suspect was arrested, but the rings could not be traced. One was a diamond, another an opal set with diamonds and the other an opal.

A BONAZA OIL WELL ON THE CARSON FARM

Miller & Murray struck another big oil well on the Samuel Carson farm, near Fairview, W. Va., last evening. The estimated flow is from 100 to 120 barrels per day. Another well on the same farm will probably be in tomorrow.

There are 12 rigs in process of construction in the Carson field, four each on the Carson, Ramsey and Bell farms.

There are 19 flowing wells on the Samuel Carson farm alone.

CONFERENCE HELD AT CITY HALL TODAY ON CODE LEGISLATION

Representative Crist Meets Councilmen and the City Officials In Earnest Consultation.

Representative D. W. Crist, accompanied by Mayor W. C. Fogo and City Solicitor Boyd, of Wellsville, arrived in this city at 1:30 today and met with the council and all the city officials in consultation on what East Liverpool desires on code legislation. Mr. Crist desired to consult the council and the city officials as to their judgment on several points which the Nash code will contain.

The most important point is that with reference to how the two boards which every city is entitled to and shall be constituted. The bill says the board of public service shall be elected and then the board of public safety shall be appointed by the mayor, and Representative Crist gave as his opinion that the Nash code would be the only one adopted by the legislature.

The majority of the council just now do not feel able or qualified to express an opinion on account of the fact that they have only today received true copies of the bill and it is not probable that Representative Crist will be given any definite opinion from them. The consultation is most interesting and many obscure points on the proposed bill are being made clear by the representative's explanations.

UNCONSCIOUS

JOHN MCKNIGHT FELL IN THE STREET TODAY.

He Is in a Critical Condition From Heat Prostration.

John McKnight, of Kensington, who with his wife and child, have been the guests of John Smith and family for several days, fell on Sixth street this afternoon near the Diamond, as the result of heat prostration. He was carried to Reed's drug store and a physician was called. Fully 20 minutes were required to bring the man to consciousness.

Dr. Norris, the physician called, anticipates no fatal results, though the man was for a time in an extremely critical condition.

NOT PROGRESSING FAST

Work on the McKinley School Building Needs to Be Hastened.

A. L. Thayer, of New Castle, architect of the new McKinley school building, was in the city yesterday, inspecting the work on the structure. To a member of the board of education Mr. Thayer said that the construction of the building was not advancing as fast as he desired, and unless more haste was made the completion of the building ready for occupancy by December 1 would not be likely.

The stonemasons are about through with their part of the contract, as they are now about to finish the foundation. After that work is completed construction will be more rapid, for the bricklayers and carpenters will next take up the work.

THE OYSTER SEASON

Is Now Open and the Bivalves Are Reported Unusually Good.

The first oysters of the season have arrived. Large shipments are coming on every express train. Dealers who handle oysters in large quantities say that not for years have the oysters been so well developed as this season. Not only have the oysters grown big during their recuperation time, but those that have been received here so far are unusually fat. Their green shell and well shaped figure are taken by the initiated as an indication of their healthy condition.

No one seems to know much about the oyster. Wet seasons are supposed to be beneficial because a greater quantity of soil is then washed into the bay and rivers upon which the bivalves can feed. The cool weather this summer, it is thought, had something to do with the improvement. The oyster is, however, a mysterious thing.

AT PLAINTIFF'S COST

Petition for Injunction Against West End Pottery Dismissed.

Lisbon, September 3.—(Special.)—The case of William A. Calhoun, of East Liverpool, against the West End Pottery company was dismissed yesterday at the plaintiff's cost by Judge Hole.

Calhoun attempted to enjoin the company from building an addition to its plant, claiming the board of directors had not been regularly elected.

AMERICA VS. ENGLAND.

The manufacturing potters of this part of the country are likely soon to open a trade war with the English manufacturers. If the present partially arranged plans are carried out it will be a case of the American manufacturer saying to the foreign manufacturer, "Go back and sit down." A high authority on crockery in this city makes the statement. Reports of the treasury department show that the importations of crockery are rapidly increasing in volume, and that the highest class of English and German ware is being imported into the East. This cannot be helped. New York is said to be flooded with money, and the people who have it care nothing for prices, if they get what they want. The class of ware, especially novelties, which is in such demand is that not to be found in an American pottery. True, some beautiful novelties are made in the art potteries in the United States, and very frequently some neat designs are to be found in the general ware potteries of East Liverpool. But manufacturing novelties in the general ware potteries is not at an end. As a rule the general ware manufacturers have not commenced to make novelties of a high class order. This is not to continue. High class novelties, such as are made in England, are to be made in this city. The preliminary steps with that end in view have been taken by one of the large firms in this city recently, and if plans do not go amiss, East Liverpool will be producing a class of ware that was never before produced here. What is to be made and the policy to be followed in reaching out after the trade that is now in the tight grasp of the English manufacturer are known to a comparatively few in this city. There are a few potteries in this city which are in a position to make ware of just as high class as is made by the manufacturer across the water. They have the facilities and the workmen and the belief of many is that the time is not far distant when the name of this city will be known around the world for fine ware. As American tradesmen are shrewd the result of the trade war is not in doubt.

DEMAND HIGH CLASS WARE.

Since his return to the East End, Arthur Mountford, art director of the large Laughlin potteries, is telling some interesting facts concerning the class of ware now being demanded in the east, especially in New York city. Mr. Mountford learned while in the east that it was not the price of the ware that was taken into consideration in these days, but the class. Price apparently is a secondary consideration, and anything that has a real touch of art about it is soon disposed of. Even more. Buyers for the exclusive houses in New York cannot fill their orders fast enough. Too good a class of ware cannot be purchased. Such conditions were never known to prevail before. These buyers are given an order by a customer of means, and he immediately leaves for England to select the most artistic ware and designs in crockery that can be obtained. High class ware is being imported into New York on a larger scale than ever known before, and unheard of prices are being paid for it. Of course this class of ware does not touch the home markets, and does not conflict with the sales of the local potteries to eastern customers. The local pottery manufacturers have the staple lines all to themselves. The market is steady and the sales of the western manufacturers in the east is constantly increasing. They will increase more rapidly than ever before. That seems certain.

WANT TO COME OVER.

William Burgess, who recently returned to his home in this city from the pottery districts of England, tells an interesting story about some of the English pottery workers. "The potteries of the old countries are running very slow just at present," said Mr. Burgess, "and trade is seemingly dull. Many of the English pottery workmen would like to come to this country, and in more than one instance I was asked by these men to bring them over to East Liverpool. Of course I could not do that, but this will give you an illustration how the pottery workmen of England are faring."

RECEIVED BAD NEWS.

Charles Smith, employed at the Pioneer pottery at Wellsville as dipper, but who makes his home in the city, received the sad news of the death of his youngest brother, Robert, at Canonsburg, Pa., last evening. Mr. Smith went to the postoffice more for pleasure than anything else, as he gets his mail by carrier, and when he was handed a letter he was much surprised. It had been in the postoffice for several days. When he made a perusal of the contents and found that his brother had died three weeks ago his surprise was turned to sorrow.

ABOUT COMPLETED.

The new decorating kilns at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery are about finished and it will in a day or so be used for the first time. The gas connections have been made and the kilns are now being inclosed. When working satisfactorily the company will demolish the old decorating kilns and in their place put a new double kiln. This improvement will just double the decorating kiln capacity of the plant. The East Liverpool Pottery company is having an excellent business in the lines made at the Chetwynd plant.

BECAME HOMESICK.

John Snervis and John Lane, of Trenton, N. J., arrived in the city several days ago for the purpose of securing positions in local potteries as kilnhands. They did not tarry long, and a friend of theirs states that when they realized how far they were away from home it frightened them to such an extent that they beat a hasty retreat. Snervis was for a few years in the Klondike region and stayed there only long enough to get money sufficient to get him back home.

GONE TO TRENTON.

Vice President Frank Hutchins, of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, located in Trenton, who has been spending several days in the city attending sessions of the national executive board, has returned to his home. Mr. Hutchins, it appears, is doing some excellent work in forming new locals in Trenton, and it will be only a question of time when he will have all the Trenton operatives organized into locals of their own.

INTERESTING MEETING.

Jiggermen's local No. 12 last evening donated $25 to the Mine Workers' association, for the benefit of the striking miners. A report of the special committee upon the matter of forming a uniform day's work, or to have a limit to all jiggermen's work, was made, but the committee will not be ready to make a final report for a few weeks.

BEAUTIFUL BANNER.

The new banner received by local No. 44, of Sebring, is said to be a beautiful piece of work. It is of elegant design, of red, white and blue, heavily trimmed and fringed with gold. It bears the inscription of the union, and in the center is a picture of decorated ware, bowl and pitcher, two pieces of a toilet set.

ENGAGED NO ONE.

Manager Wolf, of the Shenango pottery, New Castle, was in the city for several days in search of kinhands. He was compelled to return home without a single man.

MURRAY IS ILL.

John Murray, a presser at the Oliver plant at Sebring, is unable to work, being threatened with fever. He is well known in this city.

CONTROLLING THE RIVER

The Idea of a Railroad Company Ever Doing it is Absurd.

To the Editor of the News Review:

A local paper yesterday affords an amusing case of a man being scared before he is hurt. It intimates and even suspects the Pennsylvania company of having sinister designs upon the Ohio river by forever disposing of it as a competing commercial thoroughfare by draining its waters or depleting its course or securing a monopoly of the entire river front.

To a sane man the feasibility of any one of these methods is alike absurd. Were it to secure possession of all the private property between its track and the river and throughout the entire length of the corporate limits it could have but little or no effect on river commerce or the city's shipping facilities, so long as the city has control of its own thoroughfares. First street is plated its entire length to low water mark. All the north and south streets of course terminate at the river. What more is the city or shippers to want? They forever control the situation. Let the Ohio river improvement agitation go on until the work already authorized shall be completed and the great object in view shall be fully attained—a nine foot stage of water all the year 'round from Pittsburg to Cairo.

MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the hollow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

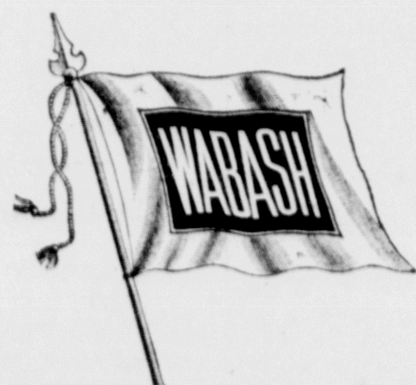

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Thedford's Black-Draught.

EAST END

COLLEGE FOR THE EAST END

The Project Discussed Some Time Ago Is Soon to Be Revived.

It is thought the time is not far distant when the first attempt to raise funds for the purpose of erecting a college in the East End will commence. Over a month ago the exclusive announcement was made in this paper that such a plan was on foot, and advanced by a number of business and professional men of the East End. At that time the work of soliciting funds would have commenced had it not been that several prominent men interested were absent from the city. Now the summer vacations are over, the subject has been revived, and it will not be long until the actual work of soliciting funds for the college building purposes will start.

One of the prime movers in this idea is Dr. William Cathoun, of the East End, and associated with him are several prominent educators of this city. Among the number is Superintendent R. E. Raymon, of the public schools, and a conference between the two relative to the plans to be followed will be held soon. Several well known capitalists of this city are said to have indicated they would assist in this movement, and all that now remains to be done is for plans to be adopted.

AN INTERESTING MEETING

Held by Eureka Circle of P. H. C.—Thirteen Candidates Initiated.

An interesting meeting was held last evening by Eureka Circle, P. H. C., of the East End. The attendance was very large, but only 13 out of a class of 32 candidates to be initiated appeared. With the reception of the class the membership of this class is now 375.

It was decided that the circle should attend the meeting at the opera house on the evening of September 18, when an address will be delivered by Supreme Lecturer Evans, of New Castle. Eureka circle is also to have a "yell" like the college boys. A committee was appointed last evening to arrange a "circle cry" and will make a report at the next meeting.

WORK IS SLOW

And the Georgetown School House, Badly Needed, Is Not Finished.

Residents of Georgetown who were in the East End claim the citizens of that little village are in no happy mood over the fact that the contractors have failed to complete the new school house for the opening of the term, which begins next week. This building was started early in the summer, and it is not even under roof, although the claim is made that the contractors have had ample time.

As the old school was far too small to accommodate the children of the town, many children will be unable to attend school this fall until the new building is completed. The building is to cost about $3,000. It is a frame structure of four rooms.

A CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Likely to Be Formed in the East End. Chapel Meetings a Success.

The mission recently established in the East End by the Christian church is meeting with marked success. Every Sunday afternoon services are held in the lodge room in the Larkins & Ferguson building on First avenue, and frequently after the Sunday school a church service is held, conducted by Rev. J. W. Gorrell.

It is thought the time is not distant when this mission will result in the establishing of a Christian church in that part of the city. The attendance at the Sunday afternoon meetings is very large, and is increasing every week.

Pleasantly Entertained.

The members of the Junior Young People's society of the Second U. P. church were pleasantly entertained last evening at the home Daniel McIntosh, on Ohio avenue. During the evening the little folks presented their former superintendent, Mrs. Elmer A. Stevenson, several handsome pieces of ware as a token of esteem. The evening was most enjoyable. Mrs. Stevenson will soon remove from the East End to Mechanicstown, where her husband is engaged in the general store business.

An Enjoyable Gathering.

M. J. Kerr and Mrs. and Mrs. John Kerr, at their home on Pennsylvania avenue today, pleasantly entertained a number of their friends. Among those present were Mrs. Shay and Mrs. Spivey, of Fairview, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of New Sheffield, Pa.; and Mrs. S. A. Bernard, of Shippingport. The day was spent most pleasantly. The visitors will return to their homes this evening.

Recovering From Injuries.

Word was received in the East End this morning that the young son of Samuel Bloor, near Georgetown, who was kicked in the head by a horse Sunday evening, was recovering rapidly. His injury, however, is most painful, and it will be several weeks before he will be able to leave his home.

Accident Narrowly Averted.

At Laughlin No. 3 early this morning a portion of a bung of glost sags fell in a kiln. The kiln was top heavy, and it was about to be braced when several sags toppled off the top of the bung. One of the sags in falling struck Harvey Walcott on the leg, but caused him no particular injury.

Prohibition Alliance Meeting.

At a meeting of the East End branch of the Prohibition Alliance which will be held at the home of Will Andrews next Monday, the matter of taking some important part in the fall election will be considered. This has not been considered at any previous session.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Emmett Densmore, who has been seriously ill with cholera morbus, is improving.

A meeting of the session of the Second U. P. church will be held next Tuesday evening. Routine business will be considered.

Mrs. Elizabeth McMillan, of the East End, who has been visiting friends at Gallipolis for four weeks, has returned to her home on St. George street.

As a result of a fight in a Dillonvale speakeasy, several foreigners were shot and one is likely to die.

James Horner, aged 69, a veteran of the Thirtieth O. V. I., and a prominent Odd Fellow, is dead at Steubenville.

The Vanderbutts are reported about to build an extension of the Northern Ohio railroad from Akron to Youngstown, 65 miles.

Rev. S. F. Martin, of Kenton, has been chosen to succeed Rev. C. M. Watson as pastor of the Christian church at Bellaire.

George Irvine Miller, a young man who was badly hurt by the fall of a scaffold on the dock of the LaBelle mill, Steubenville, died at the hospital.

The Empire Coal Mining company's mines below Bellaire, are producing about 1,100 tons per day and increasing the output each week. About 300 men are employed.

Mrs. E. I. Jones, of Bethany, Brooke county, is probably the first woman in West Virginia to receive a regular party nomination for a county office. She is the Democratic candidate for superintendent of schools.

According to a census bulletin on Ohio iron and steel production Mahoning ranked first, its mills turning out 1,364,582 tons. Cuyahoga came second with 968,801 tons; Belmont third with 496,858 tons; Jefferson fourth with 495,323 tons.

JOHNSON VICTORIOUS

Won Decisively In Preliminary Meetings of the Democratic State Convention.

OPPOSED ON ONE COMMITTEE.

Delegates Almost Unanimously With Him for Anything He Wants—Made No Concessions and in Some Cases Gave No Quarter.

Sandusky, O., Sept. 3.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, won a decisive victory yesterday in the preliminary meetings of the Democratic state convention, which meets today. Ever since he was selected as chairman of the convention by the state central committee it has been the general opinion that this occasion would be made the initial public opening of his candidacy for the next Democratic nomination for the presidency. In that respect his success has been phenomenal. No Ohio candidate for the presidency ever had more unanimity of sentiment in his favor among the delegates at the state convention than was shown at the meetings last night by congressional districts for the selection of officers and members of the various committees.

Committees of the convention, the committee on credentials, permanent organization, and rules and order of business, are almost unanimously with him for anything he wants. One of them gave him the double honor at once of agreeing on a report to make permanent the temporary organization of the convention.

The Johnson men were opposed only in the selection of the committee on resolutions and members of the state central committee, and in some districts these contests were closer and more bitter than expected. The Johnson men secured 14 of the 21 state committee-men, with three contested opponents pending, and a greater proportion of those on the committee on resolutions.

The Johnson men during the day made no concessions and in some cases "gave no quarter" to their opponents. This caused the minorities on the two committees named at first to fight, but the fighting was soon over. When the roll of the committee on resolutions was called the members from the first, third and eleventh districts opposed the endorsement of Bryan and the Kansas City platform and other Johnson planks, but the Johnson platform finally carried without changes, and will be so reported to the convention today and adopted without any minority report or other obstruction, as had been threatened earlier in the evening. It has been customary always first to appoint a sub-committee of three or five to draft a platform and report the same to the full committee, but that was found not necessary last night, as Mayor Johnson handed the full committee his "draft," and the full committee soon completed its work.

The tactics of the Johnson men in giving no quarter was shown most clearly in the organization last night of the new state central committee. Contests were made on three members, as follows: By Prescott Smith on Lewis G. Bernard, in the first; by J. K. McClung on Captain M. Hutt, in the tenth, and by C. C. Philbrick on F. J. Heer, in the twelfth district.

It was urged on the Johnson men that Bernard, Hutt and Heer had the credentials duly signed by the chairmen and secretaries of their respective districts and that such contests for committee membership were almost without precedent, but all appeals for conciliation in the interest of harmony failed, and the new committee spent the night in hearing these contests, both sides fighting with unusual persistence and bitterness.

The platform, as it came from Mayor Johnson, was agreed to last night by a vote of 16 to 5 of the committee on resolutions, but it would not be given out for publication until it is adopted today by the convention.

The resolutions are fully in accord with the views of Mayor Johnson on both national and state issues. They favor a new municipal code for Ohio cities, with home rule as the cardinal principle, and the federal plan as secondary, and denounce what is called "municipal government by boards." They also denounce the proposition of perpetual franchises and favor such charters subject to popular vote.

In national affairs the last national platform and standard bearer are strongly endorsed and what is considered as a special thrust at John P. McLean is incorporated in a resolution for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people; and until a constitutional amendment for the election of senators can be secured it shall be the policy of the Democratic party in Ohio to endorse at state conventions the candidate of the party to be voted for at the next legislative election of a senator.

TO MEET COMMITTEE

Governor Stone Will Listen to Plea of Railroaders in Behalf of Striking Miners.

APPOINTMENT FOR THURSDAY.

Executive Will Be Requested to Take Immediate Steps to Bring Strike to Close and if Necessary Call Extra Session of General Assembly.

Harrisburg, Sept. 3.—Governor Stone has made an appointment for Thursday noon to meet a committee from the state legislative board of railroad employees of Pennsylvania to precede with the executive on behalf of the striking anthracite coal miners. The committee will request the governor to take immediate steps to bring the strike to a close and if necessary call an extra session of the general assembly for the enactment of legislation making arbitration compulsory.

A fund of $122 was raised at yesterday's meeting of the board for the relief of the striking miners. Resolutions were also adopted denouncing General Gobin for his order to the troops on duty in the hard coal districts to shoot strikers who stone and assault soldiers and the coal operators for their refusal to arbitrate with the miners.

Legislative Candidates Endorsed.

The following legislative candidates were endorsed: J. W. Mayne, Democrat, Lehigh; Lewis Marra, Union, Twenty-third Philadelphia district; Patrick Philbin, Republican, Lackawanna; Robert McWhinney, Republican, Allegheny; Jere N. Weiler, Socialist Labor, Carbon; J. W. Hunter, Union, Schuylkill; William T. Creasy, Democrat, Columbia. The board adjourned yesterday afternoon to meet in June, 1904, at Pittsburg.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected: President, Thomas T. Sheridan, of Crenshaw; vice president, W. F. Plummer, Pittsburg; secretary, Edward Zimmerman, Harrisburg; treasurer, Edward McAlpin, Northumberland; executive committee, Martin G. Stoner, Harrisburg; D. H. Evanson, Kingston; C. L. Schriener, Pittsburg; Theodore Lindemuth, East Mauch Chunk; W. O. Miller, Harrisburg; W. A. Plummer, McKees Rocks; William Roate, McKees Rocks; W. J. Zerbe, Mauch Chunk; W. F. Garman, Harrisburg; Nicholas Noonan, Philadelphia; M. T. Robinson, Harrisburg; N. A. Parsons, McKees Rocks; L. K. Marr, Philadelphia; G. W. Ellinger, Harrisburg; S. J. Konenkamp, Pittsburg.

Cholera Morbus.

This is an extremely dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from it, and in many instances before a physician could be summoned or medicine obtained. Mrs. E. H. Delano, of Durant, Mich., is subject to severe attacks of cholera morbus. During the past four years she has kept at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and says it has always given her quick relief. During this time she has used two bottles of it. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases. The safe way is to keep it at hand ready for instant use. The Democratic party has failed to find an issue in the year 1902 simply because there is none on which opposition politics can be intelligently
based. But Democrats can console themselves with the fact that no issues
is as profitable as the rejected issues
the party has been chasing for forty years. It abandoned the issue of sound money and left Mr. Cleveland
in the lurch because he had a different opinion as to that movement. Free silver is as dead as Bryan's hope of ever gaining the presidency. All the other issues that the Democrats fought for in the past are dead, and the Democracy is reduced to the necessity of opposing Republican men and Republican policies simply on party grounds
and without reason.

The Beaver valley business men are showing themselves awake to the importance of improving the Ohio river.
The business men of East Liverpool
and Wellsville should imitate their example. Every mass meeting held and
every resolution adopted will have its influence. Congress can be impressed with the necessity for hastening the
work which the government has undertaken and induced to carry out the
wishes of the people if the present
agitation is kept up. East Liverpool should join heartily in the general petition.

The Democrats of the nation are enrolled with the anti's, if their campaign
literature is to be believed. They do not openly advocate hauling down the
flag, but it is hard to discover what they desire if not that. The specter of imperialism still haunts them, but sensible Americans will not be terrified by something that does not exist.

Factionalism in politics does not
pay. The warring Republicans in Vermont can now see where they made a mistake. Neither side scores a pronounced victory. But there is no probability that those stubborn Yankees,
even though their fighting blood is up,
will let their local quarrels affect the
result on national issues.

Even in Europe they are finding Roosevelt's New England speeches interesting reading. The chaps who wanted a definition of the Monroe doctrine have had their wishes gratified,
and still they are not happy.

Tom Johnson is to tour the state
with a circus tent, an automobile, ten

wagons, a cooking outfit and a chaplain. He is bound to make himself
conspicuous, and finds it easier to do
so than to bring the Democratic party
of Ohio into prominence.

The way to prevent tariff tinkering
in the next congress is to elect men
to that body who are friends of prosperity and protection.

Condemnation of the American soldier is one of the strong features of
the Democratic campaign text book.
Do the leaders of that party fancy that
that issue will win them any votes?

The wise thing to do to find out
what East Liverpool desires in the way
of code legislation is to call a mass
meeting. The mayor and council should attend to the matter at once.

Thank goodness the present war is
not likely to be productive of any embalmed beef scandal or any Santiago
victory controversy.

The Democratic campaign text book,
in enumerating the afflictions of the country, forgets to mention either Till-
man or Bryan.

Tom Johnson thinks he can supply
the Democrats both with the man and
the issue.

The game law no longer protects
the straw hat.

After a lingering illness extending
over several months, John W. Pickal
died at his home, 313 Lincoln avenue,
at 1 o'clock this morning. Mr. Pickal
was one of the best known and most respected citizens, and his death will
be mourned by a large circle of friends. His death was due to nervous prostration. He was born on a farm
three miles north of this city, near Caleutta, but removed to East Liverpool in his early youth, and has resided here ever since. In 1866 he was united in marriage to Miss Isabella Pollock, and a few years later engaged
in the grocery business, which he carried on successfully for more than 30
years. A little over a year ago Mr.
Pickal gave up his business and devoted his time for a few months previous to his death as an insurance agent.
He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. James A. Todd; three brothers, Thomas and Daniel Pickal,
and one sister, Mrs. Hoyt, of Atwater,

leaving that work about 20 years ago.
He resided in Wellsville for several

"As far as I have observed Peruna is can use who is weak from the after-effects of any serious illness.

"I have seen it used in a number of those who used Peruna had the quickest relief.

crease bodily vigor and renew health

AT THE THEATER

The three acts into which "David Harum" are divided are laid in Home-
ville, New York. In the first act Har-
um sells the deacon the balky horse,
in the second the audience sees the
pious man caught in a terrible shower
behind the animal that would "stand without hitchin'" and in the third Harum tells the story of his visit to
the circus and of the whipping which followed. The play is crowned with amusing incidents and has had an overwhelming amount of success. It is said to be the most popular native
play descriptive of American humor
now before the public. At the Grand
Saturday evening, September 6.

Vaudeville specialties in "The Way of the Wicked" are the finest even seen in a melodrama. Every player a star, every feature a sensation, every scene a triumph. More fun, more thrilling excitement, more satisfaction than in any ten other melodramas ever produced. At the Grand Sept. 4.

Cemetery Monuments.

What is more sadly comic or incongruous than the imposing medley of stone and marble in a great cemetery?
The towering columns loom over the resting places of such small citizens.
The "dove of peace" alights where it would never have brooded of its free will. The guardian angel bends over the vixen's tomb, while mediocre bits of slate denote the graves of many saintly and gifted pilgrims.—Atlantic.

HEALTH BOARD

Orders Abatement of an Alleged Nuisance And General Cleaning Up.

A special meeting of the board of health was called last evening for the purpose of condemning the vault at the rear of Mrs. Frances A. Lawson's property on Broadway, near Third street, which is considered a nuisance and also to transact other business.

Daniel T. Lawson, the husband, appeared at the meeting and stated that the vault was not a nuisance and if the board condemned it without first listening to his witnesses in the matter he would start an action in court against them.

A resolution was read and passed by the board which condemned the vault as unsafe for the health of the public and which also gave the health officer, Dr. Tarr, authority to have it cleaned and the vault abated. The board gave Mr. Lawson a limit of 15 days in which to have its orders carried out. If the work is not done by that time Dr. Tarr will take the matter in charge. Mr. Lawson stated that they would connect with the sanitary sewer.

Mayor Fogo reported that the improvement committee of council had done nothing relative to the cleaning up of the streets of the city. Dr. Tarr was ordered by the board to attend to the matter at once, and have all of the filth taken from the streets.

Gamble-Russell.

The wedding of Miss Pearl Gamble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gamble, of Broadway, and Charles Russell, of Pittsburg, took place at noon at the home of the bride's parents. It was quite an elaborate affair and many guests from out of the city attended. The ring service was used in the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. L. F. Lavery.

THE PENNSYLVANIA UNION PARTY

State Committee Holds Meeting and Selects Officers of the Convention.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—The state convention of the Union party will convene in Musical Fund hall here at 11 o'clock today. The leaders of the party expect about 500 delegates, representing nearly every county in the state, in attendance. A large number of delegates are already here, but the majority of them will not arrive before morning. The indications last night were that the Democratic state ticket nominated at Erie would be endorsed. There is a big minority and a strong fight will be made to have the convention either endorse Samuel W. Pennypacker, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, or nominate an independent ticket.

The state committee of the party held a meeting at the Continental hotel last night and selected the officers of the convention. It was unanimously decided that Thomas L. Hicks, ex-postmaster of Philadelphia, shall be temporary chairman. Colonel George E. Mapes, of this city, will be secretary, and C. E. Boyer, of Lebanon; ex-representative Plummer E. Jeffries, of Chester county, and Henry Davis, of Allegheny, will be assistant secretaries.

Colonel A. K. McClure, of this city, one of the original leaders of the Union party, yesterday sent a letter to State Chairman Frank M. Ritter, resigning as a member of the Union state committee. Mr. McClure says that he will support Judge Penny packer for governor.

John B. Rendall, ex-representative of Chester county, offered a resolution, which was adopted with only one dissenting vote, declaring it to be the sentiment of the state committee that the convention should endorse Robert E. Pattison for governor and George W. Guthrie for lieutenant governor, and that an independent Republican should be nominated for secretary of internal affairs.

Committees on credentials and on platform were appointed. The credentials committee was to sit all night and report to the state committee at 8:30 a. m.

Hancock County Nominations Include a Woman for School Superintendent.

The following nominations were made at the Democratic convention held in the court house at New Cumberland last Monday afternoon: Superintendent of schools, Miss Jane Stewart, primary teacher at Chester last year; clerk of county court, Frank Carson, who taught at Grandview last year; clerk of county court, Paul Culen; house of delegates, Robert Ramsey; county commissioner, George Owens.

It is something unusual for a woman to appear as a candidate for a political office, although a candidate for the similar office in Brooke county is a woman. Inasmuch as the franchise is not extended to the fair sex in West Virginia, a question has naturally arisen as to whether Miss Stewart could constitutionally hold the office for which she is a candidate. Prosecuting Attorney McKenzie as well as many other Hancock county citizens, believe that under the present state constitution no woman can hold office.

DECIDED TO BUILD

Presbyterians of Chester Will Buy a Lot and Erect a Church.

The meetings of the Chester Presbyterians last evening for organizing a church, was well attended. It was decided to secure a site on Indiana avenue, between Fourth and Fifth streets. Two lots will be purchased from the Southside Land company, through E. C. Baxter. The price will be $800. A substantial frame building will be erected and a regular pastor employed.

The Presbyterians are very numerous in Chester. Rev. Mr. Green, pastor of the Fairview church, has been conducting services twice a month in the M. E. church. A subscription will be started at once. Help is expected from presbytery and from the First church of East Liverpool.

Paving Will Be Pushed.

The bond commission appointed at a recent meeting of the Chester council will meet Monday for the purpose of opening bids for the sale of bonds, the money from which is to be used in the paving of some streets of Chester. As the season is getting late, many residents are of the opinion

Council Not Likely to Meet.

Republican Committee Meeting.

The Chester Republican committee will meet tonight at the home of Robert Dunn, Carolina avenue. It was to have met last evening, but several members were absent.

Local minstrels will entertain the people at Rock Springs Park on September 13 and 14. A matinee will be given on Saturday. There will be 22 persons in the troupe. All are first-class musicians.

Harvey Thompson, who has been employed as a motorman on the East Liverpool street railway for about a year, it is said, will leave the line soon and enter a pottery. Mr. Thompson is one of the old-time potters. While employed on the street railway he has proved himself to be an efficient workman.

To The Public.

One of the crying needs of East Liverpool has in the past been inability to secure first class service in the matter of dairy products. This want has now been filled. W. N. McDonald has opened an establishment at 188 Avondale street, which for excellent equipment and perfect facilities for carrying on a dairy business are unsurpassed in the state. Mr. McDonald has a thorough practical knowledge of the business, and is prepared for a service never before equaled in this city.

A new delivery wagon has been started and will be under the personal direction of Mr. McDonald at all times. He will handle nothing but the purest of Jersey milk. He will also furnish Pasteurized cream together with the very choicest of creamery butter. Your patronage solicited.

GREAT GROWTH OF CITY SCHOOLS

Interesting Facts Regarding East Liverpool Educators and Their Work.

THE CRY FOR MORE ROOM

All the Buildings Now Taxed to Their Utmost Capacity—The High School One of the 'Best—Wonderful Growth.

Between the summer and winter, when leaves are beginning to fall, comes a pause in the cycle of pleasures which is known to the children all. They hear in the distance ringing. The tones of the well known bell. They are loath to forsake their pastimes. To obey its deep toned knell.

And so it is that from the various launts of pleasure one beheld the little ones, some scarce daring to boast their six summers, enter, for the first time, the great educational arena together with those whose school days are soon to be viewed with a retrospective glance.

In anticipation of that great event, the re-opening of school, a great part of the vacation was occupied in the thorough renovation of all the buildings in the city. Many of the school rooms were equipped with new and modern desks, and in all the buildings changes of more or less importance had been made.

While it is impossible at this early stage in the year's work to state the exact number of pupils enrolled in the schools of the city, 2,800 is considered a safe estimate. In order to direct the instruction of these young people, 66 teachers—59 women and 7 men—have been employed for the ensuing year. There are also seven substitutes. This is quite the largest corps of teachers ever in the employ of the city schools.

That the people of the Crockery City, which is known far and wide as a bustling, business town, are realizing the necessity of more liberal education upon the part of the rising generation, as well as the acquisition of wealth, is evident from the fact that upon every side is heard the same cry for more school room. That this city has been making great strides along educational lines is due largely to the untiring efforts of Supt. R. E. Rayman. The buildings are all taxed to their fullest capacity. Especially is this so in the Central school, where the growth of the high school has required the entire second floor save two rooms to be given over to its use. The high school thus occupies six rooms for seating, two recitation rooms and two laboratory rooms.

At the present time there are enrolled in the high school 265 students. This is unprecedented in the history of the school. In the five years during which Prof. Rayman has been superintendent the increase in the high school alone has been over 79 per cent. The curriculum is much broader than it was at that time and quite a number of the studies have been made elective.

A law passed by the state legislature requires that the high schools be classified into a first and second grade. The first grade high schools are those having a four-years' course and ample apparatus for the efficient teaching of the science work in the courses. The second class comprises schools having a three-year course, etc.

State School Commissioner Bonebrake has already passed upon the high school in this city and classed it as one of the first. The course is highly satisfactory, since its graduates are received at any of the best colleges in the state.

It has been the desire of a quite a number of people to have the one session plan introduced in the city high school, as in Cleveland, where the hours are 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., with the afternoon for study and recreation, or as in the Columbus high school, which has a session lasting from 8:30 to 2:30. But this plan, while meeting the approval and convenience of a few people, would be very unpleasant to the majority on account of local reasons. It has never, therefore, even been considered by the superintendent and school authorities.

A few notes about those who are to teach in the high school this year will be found interesting. The corps is composed of nine teachers. Miss Florence Updegraff has most ably occupied the position of principal for the past 12 years. She will have charge of the classes in literature. C. T. Austin will teach English. He graduated from Mt. Union with the class of '99. Miss Martha Cooper, the Latin teacher, graduated from the woman's college at Oxford, O., and later entered Wooster university. She has had several years' experience as teacher in the high school.

Miss Nell Campbell teaches geometry and advanced algebra. She took part of her work at Mt. Union and her advanced work at the University of Michigan. She has taught for four years at the Ashland high school. Miss Elma G. Martin has charge of the history work. She took her advanced work at Vassar and prepared especially for history and language work. She also gave special attention to German and French. E. E. Brooke, who teaches physics and chemistry, is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university. He has had several years' experience as teacher in the high school.

Miss Mary Andrews is a graduate from the high school in this city and has taken a special course during the past summer at Harvard. She teaches physical geography. Miss Jessie Manley, teacher in bookkeeping and freshman algebra, is also a graduate of the local high school. Miss Bertha Dunlap will have two classes in Latin. She is a graduate of the city high school and has taken special work in advanced algebra and Latin at Wooster.

A neat and complete catalogue of the city schools is nearing completion and will probably be issued the last of the month.

It is expected that the new McKinley building will be completed by the first of December and when it is, there will not be so much overcrowding.

PELEE STILL ACTIVE.

FEARS ENTERTAINED FOR PEOPLE ON MARTINIQUE ISLAND.

French Government Sends Warships to Basse-Terre to Await Further Orders.

Paris, Sept. 3.—The minister of marine, Pellatin, in view of the further eruptions of Mont Pelee, island of Martinique, has ordered the commander of the French Antilles squadron to send warships immediately to Basse-Terre, island of Guadeloupe, there to await further orders. The minister of the colonies received yesterday an undated cable dispatch from the governor of Martinique reporting that a slight earthquake shock moved from north to south of the island during the morning of Aug. 25, and adding that the same night and the next morning violent eruptions of Mont Pelee occurred.

Kingston, St. Vincent, B. W. I. Sunday, Aug. 31.—A remarkable volcanic phenomenon occurred here between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. There was a startling series of detonations from La Soufriere, louder than any since the terrible eruption of May 11. Each explosion shook the buildings of the town. The noises were terrific.

Telegraphic reports have been received here from the islands of Grenada, Trinidad and Barbados, saying loud detonations were heard at these respective places between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. These explosions were similar to those heard when Mont Pelee, on Martinique, and La Soufriere were previously in eruption. The people of Grenada were greatly alarmed at the detonations; they were the loudest which have been heard there. The phenomenon was not attended by serious results on St. Vincent, but fears are entertained here for people on the island of Martinique, as Mont Pelee is known to be still terribly agitated, two eruptions having occurred there in the last six days.

1,060 Killed, 1,500 Injured.

Basse-Terre, Island of Guadeloupe, French West Indies, Sept. 3.—It has been learned from the gendarmes of the island of Martinique that 1,060 persons were killed and 1,500 injured during the last eruptions of Mont Pelee.

Most of the people of this city undoubtedly have laughed during the last few days in unison with practically the entire English speaking race. The cause of the merriment has been a poster, just put out by the "Force" Food Company, of which a picture is shown above.

The first time one sees this poster he thinks the bill poster must have made a mistake in putting it up. The second time he sees it he is inclined to the belief that something must have been wrong with the bill poster. After seeing it a number of times it begins to dawn upon him that perhaps it was done by design. This last conjecture is the true one, for this poster has been put up in every city of over 2,000 inhabitants in the United States, Canada, England and the rest of the United Kingdom. When you laugh at it, therefore, you may know that you are probably laughing with the greater part of the world.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS ON TRUSTS.

Defines His Attitude and Fully Answers Critics—Guest of Governor Crane.

Dalton, Mass., Sept. 3.—President Roosevelt yesterday took notice of his return visit to Massachusetts by delivering at Fitchburg another speech on the trust question in order that he might fully answer his critics and to more clearly define his attitude on the subject. He also launched into a defense of the army of the Philippines during his speech at Springfield. The impression had gone forth that any views he might express regarding the acquisition of territory by the United States would be sure to be coldly received, but the demonstrations of approval which greeted his utterances dispelled this idea.

Frequent stops again were made yesterday and at each place the president delivered a speech. Fitchburg's reception was notable for the size of the crowd and the enthusiasm which the people displayed.

In the afternoon, at Worcester, the president lunched with Senator Hoar.

At Springfield another hearty greeting was given the president. The address there followed a brief visit to the national armory. On the way to be train the president's carriage stopped in front of the Veterans' Memorial home and he spoke a few words to the old soldiers who had drawn up in front of the house.

At Westfield, the scene of the boyhood days of the president's secretary, a stop of half an hour was made. Applause was loud and continuous when he mentioned the secretary's name.

Governor Crane last night had the president as his guest here. Early in the morning the president and his entire party were given a drive from Dalton to Stockbridge, passing through Pittsfield and Lenox.

FIRST ACCIDENT IN MIMIC WAR

One Man Killed, One Fatally Injured and One Seriously Injured.

Fort Wright, Fishers Island, N. Y., Sept. 3.—While the guns of the fort were firing on the fleet yesterday, Elard Roy was instantly killed by the premature discharge of a 12-inch gun. Harry A. Davis was seriously injured and a third man, Samuel Clevenger, was severely wounded. Several others suffered slight injuries. All the men were privates of the Second company, coast artillery, of the regular army.

New London, Conn., Sept. 3.—The defending force in the New London district last night were alert and awaiting an attack by the navy. At midnight no decisive move had been made by the fleet under Admiral Higginson.

The impression prevails here that Newport is the point which will be next attacked.

The defending force is all at sea in regard to the next move to be made by Admiral Higginson and every possible precaution has been taken to guard against a surprise.

NAVAL OFFICIAL SURPRISED.

Criticism of Admiral Higginson Is Unwarranted.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The officials of the navy department are surprised at the amount of criticism which has been aroused by the visit of the Duchess of Marlborough, Assistant Secretary of War Sanger and a party to Rear Admiral Higginson aboard his flagship, the Kearsarge. It is not the understanding among the officials here that Admiral Higginson invited the party to come aboard, although they see no reason why he should not have extended an invitation, as the visit was made during the "period of preparation," and not during the time when the attacking movement of the fleet had begun. Moreover, they point to precedents, cases where hospitalities and courtesies were extended to persons outside the service during actual war. When the Oregon was at Guantanamo, a large party of Red Cross nurses, among them Miss Chandler, a daughter of William Astor Chandler, was taken aboard and entertained, and given a respite from the cramped quarters and the monotony of a hospital ship. There has not been, and is not apt to be, any inquiry from the navy department of Admiral Higginson concerning the matter.

Row Among Italians.

Dillonvale, O., Sept. 3.—Five drunken Italians hacked and shot one another in Dominick Ozello's speaking until it resembled a slaughterhouse. Ozello was shot near the heart; a second Italian through the arm, and a third through the kidneys, all by one man. He also shot a fourth victim, who had already been stabbed and who was afterwards spirited away. A Slav participant was stabbed and a gash cut in his head with a hatchet. Two may die.

J. G. COTTON

WAS CURED OF SCIATIC RHEUMATISM
BY THE USE OF
LIFE PLANT.

J. G. Cotton writes from New Philadelphia, O., the following praise for the great tonic, LIFE PLANT:—
New Philadelphia, O., Feb. 22, 1902
Life Plant Co.,

Messrs:—Last September I was attacked with Sciatic rheumatism. It was so painful as to allow me to sleep very little, could not stand on my feet ten minutes at a time without severe pain. I was very much alarmed as I had the same trouble a number of years ago and was unable, though attended by the best medical skill, to get rid of it for two and a half years, during which time I could perform no labor. A friend told me that LIFE PLANT was a sure cure for rheumatism. I took two bottles and it cured me; I have had no return of it since. I am not only pleased, but surprised as well at the speedy cure.

Very truly,
J. G. COTTON.

SITUATION CRITICAL.

Miners Fired Upon by Guards
and Several Injured--Strikers
In Ugly Mood.

POCOHONTAS GUARDS DOUBLED.

It is Feared the Strikers May Make Another Attack at Any Hour.
Many Shots Fired From Ambush.
Elkhorn Region Quiet.

Bramwell, W. Va., Sept. 3.—The situation in the Flat Top coal field is extremely critical and the skirmishes between the strikers and the guards at the Pocohontas Collieries company's mines yesterday, after the firing of the mine by the strikers, has greatly enraged the miners from the fact that several of their side were severely injured. Adjutant General Baker, who has been in this section for a few days looking over the territory, left at midnight Monday night for other fields, informing the operators before he left, however, that he thought the presence of the militia unnecessary at that time. The outbreak of yesterday probably will change his opinion, and it is thought here that before tonight troops will be either in the Flat Top region or on their way there. The Pocohontas Collieries company had the fire in their mine practically extinguished last night, but had doubled their force of guards, as another attack was feared any hour. Many shots have been fired from ambush in the direction of non-union miners going to and from work in the Flat Top field. The Elkhorn region is very quiet, no violence having been reported from that section yesterday.

NO CHANGE, SAYS MITCHELL.

Miners Still Stand by Demands or Will Arbitrate.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 3.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, returned from Philadelphia last evening. He stated that he was pleased with his trip and reception in the Quaker City. So far as he was aware there was no change in the strike situation. The miners were as determined as ever and did not propose to return to work until the operators granted their demands or agreed to arbitration. Mr. Mitchell said he took no stock in the reports that certain mines were in operation and were turning out a large amount of coal for the market. The Bloss and Pettebone collieries of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company resumed operations yesterday. The breakers were running all day, but just how many men are at work in the mines and what the output of coal is is not known. The officials of the company refuse to give out any information beyond the fact that they are well satisfied with the situation.

Warrants for Pay of Troops.

Harrisburg, Sept. 3.—Adjutant General Stewart issued warrants yesterday for the pay of the troops on duty in the anthracite coal region from July 31 to Aug. 31, inclusive. The warrants were forwarded to General Gobin, who is in command of the troops, and it is expected the soldiers will be paid today. The amount which the various organizations will receive follows: General Gobin and staff, $2,664.81; Governor's Troop, $3,435.28; Eighth regiment, $32,350.56; Fourth regiment, $6,640.84; Twelfth regiment, $36,648.99. Total, $171,740.48.

Last to Be Shipped.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 2.—Another train of cars loaded with anthracite coal left yesterday from the Silver Creek shaft, near New Philadelphia owned and operated by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. Strike leaders claim to have information that this is the last coal to be shipped from this operation until after the strike is declared off.

A Tour of California is Being Made
—East Liverpool Lady in the Party.

The following item of local interest is found in the Redlands (Cal.) Review of recent date:

"D. Vincent and wife of Los Angeles, accompanied by Miss Anna Gardner of East Liverpool, Ohio, arrived in the city last night and stopped over night at the Windsor hotel. They are traveling on an automobile and are enjoying their trip very much. Mr. Vincent is an enthusiast on automobiles and has a fine machine, a White. It is propelled by steam power generated by gasoline.

"They left Los Angeles yesterday morning and took it easy, visiting Stoddard's camp, near Ontario, and having lunch in the canyon. They will take a trip over the Heights and around Redlands before starting on to Riverside. Mr. Vincent took a run to Idylwild last month, and says that he found no difficulty in climbing the hills around Strawberry valley, and that since having this machine, for the past five months, he has not had a repair on it. Miss Gardner is from the East, and is being shown the beauties of California in this charming way. The party moving at the rate of 100 miles per day."

CHANGE IN PLANS.

General Miles' Philippine Inspection
Tour Delayed.

Washington, Sept. 3.—A change has been made in the plans of Lieutenant General Miles, as announced last week. It was expected originally that he would leave on his tour of inspection of the Philippines today and sail from San Francisco on the transport Thomas on the 16th. The pressure of work in his office at present is so great, however, that he finds he will not be able to leave Washington before next Wednesday.

General Miles has called a special meeting of the army board on ordnance and fortification for Sept. 9, at which time it will begin the preparation of its report and recommendations upon the subject of a new field gun for the army. The date named has been selected in order to insure the attendance of those members of the board who are at present engaged in the joint manoeuvres. It is the understanding that General Miles in person will direct the work of the board, and in case the report is not drafted quickly his departure from Washington will be delayed until later in the month.

A NEW PITCHER WAS IN THE BOX

This Helps to Explain the Slaughter of the East Liverpool Baseball Team.

CHALLIS DID HIS LEVEL BEST

But Was Not Strong Enough — The Visitors Got Eighteen Hits — It Was an Off Day, All Around, for the Home Team.

If there is a manager between the oceans that has poorer luck in trying out amateur twirlers than Charley Walsh he will confer a favor by putting out his flag. Mr. Walsh is a kind-hearted gentleman, believing always in giving the would-be experts a chance, but it is now quite time for him to cut out a little of his philanthropy. The enormous crowd that assembled to see the game became completely disgusted in the early part of the contest and kept the air blue with warm remarks. And they were all about the gentleman who has the game in charge.

Challis is from New Cumberland. He had better return and keep clear of the East Liverpool ball circles. He gave the Parkersburg team as many hits as he is years old — 18 all told. He is a lanky fellow and is built well. But when that is said the story is told. Please, Mr. Walsh, let the youngsters practice a little before giving them a chance. You will not lose by it. Of course, the lad was somewhat against it in having so strong a team to back. But more than likely he would have met with a similar experience had it been the Hookstown aggregation.

At no time during the present baseball season has the park been in a better condition. Fast ball can be played upon that diamond, and if any other kind is witnessed the cause must be credited to a person other than the grounds. Perhaps the assertion is too broad. There is yet plenty of room for improvement in the outfield. Had this part of the park been in condition no home run would have been credited to the visitors. The ball was knocked only a short distance out into left field. But it was far enough. Poor List, who played one of the prettiest games of the year, went fishing among the weeds for it, but to no avail. Maag finally ran to his assistance and made the find, but too late. The man had scored and let in two runs.

It was really an off day for the home boys. Reark and Heckathorn each got an error. When they fall down the goose is generally cooked. That did not occur with Challis, however. It is only necessary to give in detail the first inning. The remainder were so bad that it would be a waste of time. Johnson, first man up, got first on an error by Davis. Adamson got the same on the same by Heckathorn. Elston went out from first to third. Klintworth was hit. O'Neill singled. Myers walked on fielder's choice and O'Neill and Farson scored on a fly ball knocked by Donovan and scored on by Reark.

The locals started off in fine shape. Maag met one for a two-bagger and Reark followed it with a single. List got there on fielder's choice and the first two scored on a two-bagger placed by Heckathorn. List finally covered the bag, making the score nearer than ever afterwards.

The McCarron brothers must now go way back. Dennis showed his ability recently and Hugh certainly gave an exhibition of his qualities yesterday. There is no doubt that both mean to do the fair thing by everyone, but they somehow can not do it. The sympathy of the crowd was with Hugh for awhile. Then it turned. It was more than could be patiently tolerated. Even the local players made a kick. Double plays were much in evidence. Donovan and Myers handled one; Adamson, Farson and Myers another and Davis and Heckathorn another.

A New Firm.

A partnership has been formed between William W. Sloan and Jacob Stein, two of East Liverpool's most successful and energetic young business men. Mr. Stein has been the leading dry goods merchant for several years, and the concern, by reason of the partnership, will be enlarged and made still more important. The establishment will then be among the largest in this section, and with the additional facilities will be amply able to handle the immense patronage in a more satisfactory manner.

William W. Sloan is well known to East Liverpool people, having spent the greater portion of his life among them. Several years ago he associated himself with a local hardware firm. So well did he manage his affairs that it was but a short time until he became part owner of the large business. From that time to the present he has demonstrated by hard work and close application, that he is qualified to take his place among the leading business men of the city. A future of unbounded success is predicted for the new firm.

Pastor Owens' Return—Rev. Oscar L. Owens returned today from his vacation, which he spent in Virginia and in New York. He will be present at the prayer meeting of the Baptist church this evening. On Friday Mr. Owens leaves to preach the annual sermon before the Zoar association, which meets at Bethesda, O.

His Mother Dead—Chief Thompson received a telegram last evening from the chief of police of Pittsburg asking that a piano player, Walter Snowden by name, be located and informed of the news of his mother's death, which occurred yesterday morning. Snowden was soon found and apprised of the sad intelligence. He left this morning to attend the funeral.

Fruit Thieves Scared—Stealing fruit, such as grapes and pears from the yard of William Dunn, of Sixth street, is not according to law, and a number of small boys have found that out. Mr. Dunn has been troubled much of late by small boys coming in to his yard and stealing fruit, and in order to give the youngsters a good scare he called an officer. The officer lay in wait for a few minutes last evening, the boys came and he seized them. They promised not to enter the yard again.

Odd Place For a Serpent.

In Alsace recently a four-year-old child, the daughter of a workman, became very ill one day, but speedily recovered, and for some days afterward dismayed her parents by eating a good deal more than a child of that age is wont to eat.

Instead, however, of growing fatter, the girl grew thinner, and doctors who were summoned to attend her were unable to explain why the food did her no good. Finally the riddle was solved, for a serpent about twenty inches in length issued one morning from the child's mouth.

The serpent was killed and sent to the University of Strassburg, and since then the little one has enjoyed excellent health. It is supposed that the child swallowed the serpent while drinking some impure water.

Butterflies That Fly High.

Both in the Himalayas and in the Andes butterflies have been found at heights ranging up to 16,000 feet, and in the Alps they are quite common at 9,000 feet. The very highest elevation so far observed is 16,626 feet, where they were found by M. Bonpland on the slopes of Chimborazo. Sir J. D. Hooker found butterflies on the slopes of the Himalayas at about the same height. He speaks of "the amazing quantity of superb butterflies, many large tropical swallowtails, black, with a scarlet eye on the wings." The South American high flying butterflies belong to the family of Colia dimera, the Asiatic that of the Pieris callidice. The explorer, Sir Martin Conway, also found them at high altitudes in the Himalayas.

Bagby's Way.

"Bagby telephoned me when that heavy shower came on last night."
"What did he want?"
"He wanted to borrow an umbrella."
"Why did he telephone?"
"He wanted me to bring it over to his house."

Candidates For City Offices Slow to Announce Until the Legislature Is Through With Its Work.

A great deal of speculation is being indulged in among local politicians with reference to the intentions of a number of prospective candidates for municipal offices. Now that it is absolutely certain the proposed code bill will make many changes in the duties and salaries of these officers, it is thought several of the men who have announced their intentions, will change their mind.

Whatever mark is fixed to divide cities and villages it is reasonably certain that East Liverpool will with its population of 18,000 be classed among the cities of the state. When this is done there will be material changes in the manner of governing the municipalities, and several of the officers, both elective and appointive, will be less important than at present. One of the best berths, that of mayor, will under the new regulations be one of the least remunerative in the entire list.

When it is considered that heretofore the office of mayor has paid over $2,000 per year, and has been second only to that of marshal in point of salary, there is little wonder aspirants to the job have announced themselves early in order that all may know their intentions.

To the present time, though the time for a selection is more than a year off, no less than four men have been quietly at work looking after their forces. Several of these men have merely been mentioned by their friends, while others are making preparations on their own account. Those who have been mentioned in connection with the place are: O. D. Nice, president of council; T. V. Thompson, now serving as city marshal; Le Roy Orr, an operative potter, prominent in labor circles; Thomas Pickall, also a potter. Had there been no talk of a municipal code bill it is likely there would have been many who before the time expired for entering the race. As it is, however, is it extremely doubtful if even those mentioned will stand for election, as they would scarcely consider it worth the ammunition. A great many of the duties now performed by the mayor will, under the proposed bill, be assumed by the police judge, and since the majority of the citizens of East Liverpool have long advocated the placing of an officer of this kind in charge here, the change will be gratifying.

There will be a large number of candidates for the Republican nomination as city marshal also, and as nothing definite has been determined upon relative to the duties of this official, it is likely the candidates will keep up their canvass throughout the winter, or until the code bill is passed. The position of marshal is a good one, paying nearly $3,000 a year, and it is likely few changes will be made that will effect the importance of the office. Those mentioned in connection with this berth are: Clifford Dawson, Henry Aufderheide, Homer Mains, all members of the local police force; Ed. Ryan, a prominent operative potter, and John Sellers, mail carrier.

Lisbon, September 3.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ina Phillips, of East Liverpool, has entered suit in common pleas court for divorce against David G. Phillips. They were married in 1893, and have no children. She claims that her husband has grossly neglected her for three years, and that she has been compelled to provide for herself. She asks that her maiden name of Ina Tomlinson, be restored.

Mrs. Annie M. Boulton, of East Liverpool, has entered suit for divorce from J. E. Boulton. They were married in 1894, and they have one child. BACK FROM ABROAD

William Erlanger, Jr., And Family Had a Delightful Visit in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. William Erlanger, Jr., and children, Julius and Miss Esther, have arrived home from an extended trip through Europe. The party has been absent since the latter part of May. Mr. Erlanger's mother resides at Fuerth, Germany, and the family made that city their headquarters while visiting the points of interest in the old country.

The trip throughout was a most delightful one, and was enjoyed by them to the utmost. It had been seven years since Mr. Erlanger had visited his native country. On the return trip the family took passage on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which boat broke its previous records by several hours, making the trip in 5 days and 15 hours.

New subscribers come in by scores, unsolicited. This attests the News Review's popularity.

EDWARD A. CUDAHY, PROSPECTIVE HEAD OF THE BEEF SYNDICATE.

PRESIDENT HURT

Trolley Car Strikes His Carriage, Killing One Man and Injuring Another.

Pittsfield, Mass., Sept. 3.—(Special.)

—A drag containing the president's party, bound from Pittsfield to Lenox this morning, was in a wreck, and for a time the most alarming rumors prevailed. As it was one man was killed and another perhaps fatally injured. The president was uninjured, aside from a few scratches, and bruises. According to a telephone message from the Country club, the drag containing the party was struck by an electric car at a crossing. The horses attached were instantly killed. The president escaped with a few bruises and a badly scratched face. Secret Service Agent Craig was killed and D. J. Pratt, the driver of the coach, had his skull fractured.

None of the rest of the party were hurt.

THE RAILROAD COMPANY WANTS TO RUSH WORK

Few people of the city are aware of the magnitude of the work being done by the Pennsylvania Railroad company in an effort to provide facilities for the rapid transit of freight to and from the industrial plants within the city limits.

It is regarded almost as an assured fact that the great Wabash will be operating in the city before long, and to this is credited the movements of the Pennsylvania. For several years freight traffic has been increasing. Now there is so much that the road cannot handle it. The Pennsylvania has at last taken the matter up and is hastening to mend matters.

Following the giving of big contracts to W. H. Ford, of Cleveland, for the erection of two stone culverts at the West End, to be built in the place of the old ones, the company is trying to give a contract which will triple the West End jobs, which are now in progress.

Contractor John Ryan has been asked to make an estimate on the excavation of the side hill running from Thompson's pottery to the power house. The route is to be of sufficient width to allow the laying of another track. Mr. Ryan doubts whether he can accept such a job. He will give the company an answer this week.

MISSING YOUNG MAN FOUND IN CANONSBURG

John Hague, better known as John Frederick, residing at 506 Calcutta road, went to Canonsburg, Pa., Monday afternoon, and not until yesterday evening did his mother learn where her son was. The exclusive statement was published in this paper last evening that representatives of out of town potteries were in the city Monday to secure mould runners. A J. German from Canonsburg asked young Hague to leave town with him, and the offer was accepted. Monday morning young Hague went home and told his mother he was going to sell canes. Shortly afterwards the other members of the household went to view the parade. Then young Hague slipped home, gathered his clothing and left for Canonsburg. Finally Mrs. Hague heard that her son had gone to Canonsburg to work for William Maley as a mould runner.

This report was verified last evening when Mrs. Hague telephoned to Canonsburg.

ROBBED OF JEWELRY WHILE AT A HOTEL

Miss Pearl Grafton, a teacher at the Grant street public school, has reported to a number of friends the loss of three beautiful rings which she valued very highly, and each being a gift, she regrets very much the loss. While at Smith's Ferry on last Saturday she lost them. She was with a number of lady friends and went to a hotel for supper. She took the rings off to wash her hands and when she looked for them 15 minutes later they were not to be found. Diligent search was made by the hotel people and the police and one suspect was arrested, but the rings could not be traced. One was a diamond, another an opal set with diamonds and the other an opal.

A BONAZA OIL WELL ON THE CARSON FARM

Miller & Murray struck another big oil well on the Samuel Carson farm, near Fairview, W. Va., last evening. The estimated flow is from 100 to 120 barrels per day. Another well on the same farm will probably be in tomorrow.

There are 12 rigs in process of construction in the Carson field, four each on the Carson, Ramsey and Bell farms.

There are 19 flowing wells on the Samuel Carson farm alone.

Representative Crist Meets Councilmen and the City Officials In Earnest Consultation.

Representative D. W. Crist, accompanied by Mayor W. C. Fogo and City Solicitor Boyd, of Wellsville, arrived in this city at 1:30 today and met with the council and all the city officials in consultation on what East Liverpool desires on code legislation. Mr. Crist desired to consult the council and the city officials as to their judgment on several points which the Nash code will contain.

The most important point is that with reference to how the two boards which every city is entitled to and shall be constituted. The bill says the board of public service shall be elected and then the board of public safety shall be appointed by the mayor, and Representative Crist gave as his opinion that the Nash code would be the only one adopted by the legislature.

The majority of the council just now do not feel able or qualified to express an opinion on account of the fact that they have only today received true copies of the bill and it is not probable that Representative Crist will be given any definite opinion from them. The consultation is most interesting and many obscure points on the proposed bill are being made clear by the representative's explanations.

UNCONSCIOUS

JOHN MCKNIGHT FELL IN THE
STREET TODAY.

He is in a Critical Condition From Heat Prostration.

John McKnight, of Kensington, who with his wife and child, have been the guests of John Smith and family for several days, fell on Sixth street this afternoon near the Diamond, as the result of heat prostration. He was carried to Reed's drug store and a physician was called. Fully 20 minutes were required to bring the man to consciousness.

Dr. Norris, the physician called, anticipates no fatal results, though the man was for a time in an extremely critical condition.

Toronto Merchant And East Liverpool Lady United—Other Weddings.

Weddings are numerous just now. At 1 o'clock today Rev. Clark Crawford performed the ceremony uniting William Campbell, of Toronto, and Miss Maude Monsey, of this city. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride on Third street. Mr. Campbell is a merchant of Toronto, while his bride is well known here.

A wedding of interest to a large number of persons in this city is that of Arthur G. Savage and Miss Cora Henry, formerly of this city. The ceremony occurs at high noon tomorrow at the bride's home in Zanesfield, O., in the presence of the family and a number of friends of the contracting parties.

Banns were published Sunday for the first time announcing the marriage of Daniel T. McCarron and Miss Aecia B. Crites, to take place September 15 at St. Aloysius' church with high mass. Mr. McCarron is bookkeeper at the Dresden pottery, while his bride-elect has been employed as stenographer for the National China company.

Reese E. Allen and Miss Lillian Elliott will be married this evening at 9:30 o'clock by Dr. Crawford at the parsonage.

The marriage is also announced of Dennis McCarron and Miss Agnes Walsh, to occur September 25 at St. Aloysius' church. Mr. McCarron is the well known base ball player. During the late war he was in active service with the army in Cuba, after which he enlisted in the regular army.

On September 24 will occur the marriage of Peter Gavin, of Toronto, and Miss Nellie Cannon, of this city, at St. Aloysius' church. Mr. Gavin is a lawyer of Toronto, while his bride is well known here.

Miss E. Frances Aldrich and George B. Sinclair, of Chester, have been licensed to marry. Rev. J. W. Gorrell will perform the ceremony.

NOT PROGRESSING FAST

Work on the McKinley School Building Needs To Be Hastened.

A. L. Thayer, of New Castle, architect of the new McKinley school building, was in the city yesterday, inspecting the work on the structure. To a member of the board of education Mr. Thayer said that the construction of the building was not advancing as fast as he desired, and unless more haste was made the completion of the building ready for occupancy by December 1 would not be likely.

The stonemasons are about through with their part of the contract, as they are now about to finish the foundation. After that work is completed construction will be more rapid, for the bricklayers and carpenters will next take up the work.

THE OYSTER SEASON

Is Now Open and the Bivalves Are Reported Unusually Good.

The first oysters of the season have arrived. Large shipments are coming on every express train. Dealers who handle oysters in large quantities say that not for years have the oysters been so well developed as this season. Not only have the oysters grown big during their recuperation time, but those that have been received here so far are unusually fat. Their green shell and well shaped figure are taken by the initiated as an indication of their healthy condition.

No one seems to know much about the oyster. Wet seasons are supposed to be beneficial because a greater quantity of soil is then washed into the bay and rivers upon which the bivalves can feed. The cool weather this summer, it is thought, had something to do with the improvement. The oyster is, however, a mysterious thing.

AT PLAINTIFF'S COST

Petition for Injunction Against West End Pottery Dismissed.

Lisbon, September 3.—(Special.)—The case of William A. Calhoun, of East Liverpool, against the West End Pottery company was dismissed yesterday at the plaintiff's cost by Judge Hole.

Calhoun attempted to enjoin the company from building an addition to its plant, claiming the board of directors had not been regularly elected.

AMERICA VS. ENGLAND.

The manufacturing potters of this part of the country are likely soon to open a trade war with the English manufacturers. If the present partially arranged plans are carried out it will be a case of the American manufacturer saying to the foreign manufacturer, "Go back and sit down." A high authority on crockery in this city makes the statement. Reports of the treasury department show that the importations of crockery are rapidly increasing in volume, and that the highest class of English and German ware is being imported into the East. This cannot be helped. New York is said to be flooded with money, and the people who have it care nothing for prices, if they get what they want. The class of ware, especially novelties, which is in such demand is that not to be found in an American pottery. True, some beautiful novelties are made in the art potteries in the United States, and very frequently some neat designs are to be found in the general ware potteries of East Liverpool. But manufacturing novelties in the general ware potteries is not at an end. As a rule the general ware manufacturers have not commenced to make novelties of a high class order. This is not to continue. High class novelties, such as are made in England, are to be made in this city. The preliminary steps with that end in view have been taken by one of the large firms in this city recently, and if plans do not go amiss, East Liverpool will be producing a class of ware that was never before produced here. What is to be made and the policy to be followed in reaching out after the trade that is now in the tight grasp of the English manufacturer are known to a comparatively few in this city. There are a few potteries in this city which are in a position to make ware of just as high class as is made by the manufacturer across the water. They have the facilities and the workmen and the belief of many is that the time is not far distant when the name of this city will be known around the world for fine ware. As American tradesmen are shrewd the result of the trade war is not in doubt.

DEMAND HIGH CLASS WARE.

Since his return to the East End, Arthur Mountford, art director of the large Laughlin potteries, is telling some interesting facts concerning the class of ware now being demanded in the east, especially in New York city. Mr. Mountford learned while in the east that it was not the price of the ware that was taken into consideration in these days, but the class. Price apparently is a secondary consideration, and anything that has a real touch of art about it is soon disposed of. Even more. Buyers for the exclusive houses in New York cannot fill their orders fast enough. Too good a class of ware cannot be purchased. Such conditions were never known to prevail before. These buyers are given an order by a customer of means, and he immediately leaves for England to select the most artistic ware and designs in crockery that can be obtained. High class ware is being imported into New York on a larger scale than ever known before, and unheard of prices are being paid for it. Of course this class of ware does not touch the home markets, and does not conflict with the sales of the local potteries to eastern customers. The local pottery manufacturers have the staple lines all to themselves. The market is steady and the sales of the western manufacturers in the east is constantly increasing. They will increase more rapidly than ever before. That seems certain.

WANT TO COME OVER.

William Burgess, who recently returned to his home in this city from the pottery districts of England, tells an interesting story about some of the English pottery workers. "The potteries of the old countries are running very slow just at present," said Mr. Burgess, "and trade is seemingly dull. Many of the English pottery workmen would like to come to this country, and in more than one instance I was asked by these men to bring them over to East Liverpool. Of course I could not do that, but this will give you an illustration how the pottery workmen of England are faring."

RECEIVED BAD NEWS.

Charles Smith, employed at the Pioneer pottery at Wellsville as dipper, but who makes his home in the city, received the sad news of the death of his youngest brother, Robert, at Canonsburg, Pa., last evening. Mr. Smith went to the postoffice more for pleasure than anything else, as he gets his mail by carrier, and when he was handed a letter he was much surprised. It had been in the postoffice for several days. When he made a perusal of the contents and found that his brother had died three weeks ago his surprise was turned to sorrow.

ABOUT COMPLETED.

The new decorating kilns at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery are about finished and it will in a day or so be used for the first time. The gas connections have been made and the kilns are now being inclosed. When working satisfactorily the company will demolish the old decorating kilns and in their place put a new double kiln. This improvement will just double the decorating kiln capacity of the plant. The East Liverpool Potteries company is having an excellent business in the lines made at the Chetwynd plant.

BECAME HOMESICK.

John Snervis and John Lane, of Trenton, N. J., arrived in the city several days ago for the purpose of securing positions in local potteries as kilnhands. They did not tarry long, and a friend of theirs states that when they realized how far they were away from home it frightened them to such an extent that they beat a hasty retreat. Snervis was for a few years in the Klondike region and stayed there only long enough to get money sufficient to get him back home.

GONE TO TRENTON.

Vice President Frank Hutchins, of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, located in Trenton, who has been spending several days in the city attending sessions of the national executive board, has returned to his home. Mr. Hutchins, it appears, is doing some excellent work in forming new locals in Trenton, and it will be only a question of time when he will have all the Trenton operatives organized into locals of their own.

INTERESTING MEETING.

Jiggermen's local No. 12 last evening donated $25 to the Mine Workers' association, for the benefit of the striking miners. A report of the special committee upon the matter of forming a uniform day's work, or to have a limit to all jiggermen's work, was made, but the committee will not be ready to make a final report for a few weeks.

BEAUTIFUL BANNER.

The new banner received by local No. 44, of Sebring, is said to be a beautiful piece of work. It is of elegant design, of red, white and blue, heavily trimmed and fringed with gold. It bears the inscription of the union, and in the center is a picture of decorated ware, bowl and pitcher, two pieces of a toilet set.

ENGAGED NO ONE.

Manager Wolf, of the Shenango pottery, New Castle, was in the city for several days in search of kilnhands. He was compelled to return home without a single man.

MURRAY IS ILL.

John Murray, a presser at the Oliver plant at Sebring, is unable to work, being threatened with fever. He is well known in this city.

They had been attending the yacht races at Monroe, Mich., and were returning on their sail yacht Sun Dancer. When near Turtle light, at 5:30 p. m., the boat capsized. Both succeeded in getting out to the bottom of the boat, which was upturned, and they were compelled to remain there until 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when they were picked up by a small launch, which happened to notice the wreck. Both boys were exhausted when rescued.

CONTROLLING THE RIVER

The Idea of a Railroad Company Ever Doing it is Absurd.

To the Editor of the News Review:

A local paper yesterday affords an amusing case of a man being scared before he is hurt. It intimates and even suspects the Pennsylvania company of having sinister designs upon the Ohio river by forever disposing of it as a competing commercial thoroughfare by draining its waters or depleting its course or securing a monopoly of the entire river front.

To a sane man the feasibility of any one of these methods is alike absurd. Were it to secure possession of all the private property between its track and the river and throughout the entire length of the corporate limits it could have but little or no effect on river commerce or the city's shipping facilities, so long as the city has control of its own thoroughfares. First street is plated its entire length to low water mark. All the north and south streets of course terminate at the river. What more is the city or shippers to want? They forever control the situation. Let the Ohio river improvement agitation go on until the work already authorized shall be completed and the great object in view shall be fully attained—a nine foot stage of water all the year 'round from Pittsburg to Cairo.

Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the hollow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you. Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? EAST END COLLEGE FOR THE EAST END

The Project Discussed Some Time Ago Is Soon to Be Revived.

It is thought the time is not far distant when the first attempt to raise funds for the purpose of erecting a college in the East End will commence.

Over a month ago the exclusive announcement was made in this paper that such a plan was on foot, and advanced by a number of business and professional men of the East End. At that time the work of soliciting funds would have commenced had it not been that several prominent men interested were absent from the city. Now the summer vacations are over, the subject has been revived, and it will not be long until the actual work of soliciting funds for the college building purposes will start.

One of the prime movers in this idea is Dr. William Calhoun, of the East End, and associated with him are several prominent educators of this city. Among the number is Superintendent R. E. Raymon, of the public schools, and a conference between the two relative to the plans to be followed will be held soon. Several well known capitalists of this city are said to have intimated they would assist in this movement, and all that now remains to be done is for plans to be adopted.

AN INTERESTING MEETING

Held by Eureka Circle of P. H. C.—Thirteen Candidates Initiated.

An interesting meeting was held last evening by Eureka Circle, P. H. C., of the East End. The attendance was very large, but only 13 out of a class of 32 candidates to be initiated appeared. With the reception of the class the membership of this class is now 375.

It was decided that the circle should attend the meeting at the opera house on the evening of September 18, when an address will be delivered by Supreme Lecturer Evans, of New Castle. Eureka circle is also to have a "yell" like the college boys. A committee was appointed last evening to arrange a "circle cry" and will make a report at the next meeting.

WORK IS SLOW

And the Georgetown School House, Badly Needed, Is Not Finished.

Residents of Georgetown who were in the East End claim the citizens of that little village are in no happy mood over the fact that the contractors have failed to complete the new school house for the opening of the term, which begins next week. This building was started early in the summer, and it is not even under roof, although the claim is made that the contractors have had ample time.

As the old school was far too small to accommodate the children of the town, many children will be unable to attend school this fall until the new building is completed. The building is to cost about $2,000. It is a frame structure of four rooms.

A CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Likely to Be Formed in the East End. Chapel Meetings a Success.

The mission recently established in the East End by the Christian church is meeting with marked success. Every Sunday afternoon services are held in the lodge room in the Larkins & Ferguson building on First avenue, and frequently after the Sunday school a church service is held, conducted by Rev. J. W. Gorrell.

It is thought the time is not distant when this mission will result in the establishing of a Christian church in that part of the city. The attendance at the Sunday afternoon meetings is very large, and is increasing every week.

Pleasantly Entertained.

The members of the Junior Young People's society of the Second U. P. church were pleasantly entertained last evening at the home Daniel McIntosh, on Ohio avenue. During the evening the little folks presented their former superintendent, Mrs. Elmer A. Stevenson, several handsome pieces of

An Enjoyable Gathering.

M. J. Kerr and Mrs. and Mrs. John Kerr, at their home on Pennsylvania avenue today, pleasantly entertained a number of their friends. Among those present were Mrs. Shay and Mrs. Spivey, of Fairview, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of New Sheffield, Pa.; and Mrs. S. A. Bernard, of Shippingport. The day was spent most pleasantly. The visitors will return to their homes this evening.

Recovering From Injuries.

Word was received in the East End this morning that the young son of Samuel Bloor, near Georgetown, who was kicked in the head by a horse Sunday evening, was recovering rapidly. His injury, however, is most painful, and it will be several weeks before he will be able to leave his home.

Accident Narrowly Averted.

At Laughlin No. 3 early this morning a portion of a bung of glost sags fell in a kiln. The kiln was top heavy, and it was about to be braced when several sags toppled off the top of the bung. One of the sags in falling struck Harvey Walcott on the leg, but caused him no particular injury.

Prohibition Alliance Meeting.

At a meeting of the East End branch of the Prohibition Alliance which will be held at the home of Will Andrews next Monday, the matter of taking some important part in the fall election will be considered. This has not been considered at any previous session.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Emmett Densmore, who has been seriously ill with cholera morbus, is improving.

A meeting of the session of the Second U. P. church will be held next Tuesday evening. Routine business will be considered.

Mrs. Elizabeth McMillan, of the East End, who has been visiting friends at Gallipolis for four weeks, has returned to her home on St. George street.

George Irvine Miller, a young man who was badly hurt by the fall of a scaffold on the stock of the LaBelle mill, Steubenville, died at the hospital.

The Empire Coal Mining company's mines below Bellaire, are producing about 1,100 tons per day and increasing the output each week. About 300 men are employed.

Mrs. E. I. Jones, of Bethany, Brooke county, is probably the first woman in West Virginia to receive a regular party nomination for a county office. She is the Democratic candidate for superintendent of schools.

According to a census bulletin on Ohio iron and steel production Mahoning ranked first, its mills turning out 1,364,582 tons. Cuyahoga came second with 968,801 tons; Belmont third with 496,558 tons; Jefferson fourth with 495,323 tons.

BLOOD DISEASE CURED.

If you ever contracted any Blood or Private Disease, you are never safe until the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. Don't be satisfied with a "patch up" by some family doctor. Our New Method is Guaranteed to Cure or No Pay. 65c. No Name Used without Written consent.

Cured When All Else Failed

"Could I live my early life over, this testimonial would not be necessary, though I was no more a sufferer than thousands of other young men. Early indiscretions, later excesses, exposure to contagious diseases all helped to break down my system. When I commenced to realize my condition I was almost frantic. Doctor after doctor treated me but only gave me relief—not a cure. Hot Springs helped me, but did not cure me. The symptoms always returned. Mercury and Potash drove the poison into my system instead of driving it out. I bless the day your New Method Treatment was recommended to me. I investigated who you were first, and finding you had over 25 years' experience and responsible financially, I gave you my case under a guarantee. You cured me permanently, and in six years there has not been a sore, pain, ulcer or any other symptom of the blood disease."

Harrisburg, Sept. 3.—Governor Stone has made an appointment for Thursday noon to meet a committee from the state legislative board of railroad employees of Pennsylvania to concede with the executive on behalf of the striking anthracite coal miners. The committee will request the governor to take immediate steps to bring the strike to a close and if necessary call an extra session of the general assembly for the enactment of legislation making arbitration compulsory.

A fund of $122 was raised at yesterday's meeting of the board for the relief of the striking miners.

During the past four years she has kept at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and says it has always given her quick relief. During this time she has used two bottles of it. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases. The safe way is to keep it at hand ready for instant use. JOHNSON VICTORIOUS

Won Decisively In Preliminary Meetings of the Democratic State Convention.

OPPOSED ON ONE COMMITTEE.

Delegates Almost Unanimously With Him for Anything He Wants—Made No Concessions and in Some Cases Gave No Quarter.

Sandusky, O., Sept. 3.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, won a decisive victory yesterday in the preliminary meetings of the Democratic state convention, which meets today. Ever since he was selected as chairman of the convention by the state central committee it has been the general opinion that this occasion would be made the initial public opening of his candidacy for the next Democratic nomination for the presidency. In that respect his success has been phenomenal. No Ohio candidate for the presidency ever had more unanimity of sentiment in his favor among the delegates at the state convention than was shown at the meetings last night by congressional districts for the selection of officers and members of the various committees.

Committees of the convention, the committee on credentials, permanent organization, and rules and order of business, are almost unanimously with him for anything he wants. One of them gave him the double honor at once of agreeing on a report to make permanent the temporary organization of the convention.

The Johnson men were opposed only in the selection of the committee on resolutions and members of the state central committee, and in some districts these contests were closer and more bitter than expected. The Johnson men secured 14 of the 21 state committee-men, with three contested opponents pending, and a greater proportion of those on the committee on resolutions.

The Johnson men during the day made no concessions and in some cases "gave no quarter" to their opponents. This caused the minorities on the two committees named at first to fight, but the fighting was soon over. When the roll of the committee on resolutions was called the members from the first, third and eleventh districts opposed the endorsement of Bryan and the Kansas City platform and other Johnson blanks, but the Johnson platform finally carried without changes, and will be so reported to the convention today and adopted without any minority report or other obstruction, as had been threatened earlier in the evening. It has been customary always first to appoint a sub-committee of three or five to draft a platform and report the same to the full committee, but that was found not necessary last night, as Mayor Johnson handed the full committee his "draft," and the full committee soon completed its work.

The tactics of the Johnson men in giving no quarter was shown most clearly in the organization last night of the new state central committee. Contests were made on three members, as follows: By Prescott Smith on Lewis G. Bernhard, in the first; by J. K. McClung on Captain M. Hutt, in the tenth, and by C. C. Philbrick on E. J. Heer, in the twelfth district.

It was urged on the Johnson men that Bernhard, Hutt and Heer had the credentials duly signed by the chairmen and secretaries of their respective districts and that such contests for committee membership were almost without precedent, but all appeals for conciliation in the interest of harmony failed, and the new committee spent the night in hearing these contests, both sides fighting with unusual persistence and bitterness.

The platform, as it came from Mayor Johnson, was agreed to last night by a vote of 16 to 5 of the committee on resolutions, but it would not be given out for publication until it is adopted today by the convention.

The resolutions are fully in accord with the views of Mayor Johnson on both national and state issues. They favor a new municipal code for Ohio cities, with home rule as the cardinal principle, and the federal plan as secondary, and denounce what is called "municipal government by boards." They also denounce the proposition of perpetual franchises and favor such charters subject to popular vote. In national affairs the last national platform and standard bearer are strongly endorsed and what is considered as a special thrust at John P. McLean is incorporated in a resolution for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people; and until a constitutional amendment for the election of senators can be secured it shall be the policy of the Democratic party in Ohio to endorse at state conventions the candidate of the party to be voted for at the next legislative election of a senator.

The Democratic party has failed to find an issue in the year 1902 simply because there is none on which opposition politics can be intelligently based. But Democrats can console themselves with the fact that no issues are as profitable as the rejected issues the party has been chasing for forty years. It abandoned the issue of sound money and left Mr. Cleveland in the lurch because he had a different opinion as to that movement. Free silver is as dead as Bryan's hope of ever gaining the presidency. All the other issues that the Democrats fought for in the past are dead, and the Democracy is reduced to the necessity of opposing Republican men and Republican policies simply on party grounds and without reason.

The Beaver valley business men are showing themselves awake to the importance of improving the Ohio river. The business men of East Liverpool and Wellsville should imitate their example. Every mass meeting held and every resolution adopted will have its influence. Congress can be impressed with the necessity for hastening the work which the government has undertaken and induced to carry out the wishes of the people if the present agitation is kept up. East Liverpool should join heartily in the general petition.

The Democrats of the nation are enrolled with the anti's, if their campaign literature is to be believed. They do not openly advocate hauling down the flag, but it is hard to discover what they desire if not that. The specter of imperialism still haunts them, but sensible Americans will not be terrified by something that does not exist.

Factionalism in politics does not pay. The warring Republicans in Vermont can now see where they made a mistake. Neither side scores a pronounced victory. But there is no probability that those stubborn Yankees, even though their fighting blood is up, will let their local quarrels affect the result on national issues.

Even in Europe they are finding Roosevelt's New England speeches interesting reading. The chaps who wanted a definition of the Monroe doctrine have had their wishes gratified, and still they are not happy.

Tom Johnson is to tour the state with a circus tent, an automobile, ten wagons, a cooking outfit and a chaplain. He is bound to make himself conspicuous, and finds it easier to do so than to bring the Democratic party of Ohio into prominence.

The way to prevent tariff tinkering in the next congress is to elect men to that body who are friends of prosperity and protection.

Condemnation of the American soldier is one of the strong features of the Democratic campaign text book. Do the leaders of that party fancy that that issue will win them any votes?

The wise thing to do, find out what East Liverpool desires in the way of code legislation is to call a mass meeting. The mayor and council should attend to the matter at once.

Thank goodness the present war is not likely to be productive of any embalmers' scandal or any Santiago victory controversy.

The Democratic campaign text book, in enumerating the afflictions of the country, forgets to mention either Tillman or Bryan.

Tom Johnson thinks he can supply the Democrats both with the man and the issue.

The game law no longer protects the straw hat.

OBITUARY

John W. Pickal.

After a lingering illness extending over several months, John W. Pickal died at his home, 313 Lincoln avenue, at 1 o'clock this morning. Mr. Pickal was one of the best known and most respected citizens, and his death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. His death was due to nervous prostration. He was born on a farm three miles north of this city, near Calcutta, but removed to East Liverpool in his early youth, and has resided here ever since. In 1866 he was united in marriage to Miss Isabella Pollock, and a few years later engaged in the grocery business, which he carried on successfully for more than 30 years. A little over a year ago Mr. Pickal gave up his business and devoted his time for a few months previous to his death as an insurance agent. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. James A. Todd; three brothers, Thomas and Daniel Pickal, and one sister, Mrs. Hoyt, of Atwater, O. Mr. Pickal was a conscientious Christian, having been a member of the First M. E. church here almost since his infancy. He was a prominent Odd Fellow and a member of the Mystic Circle. He served as a private in the Sixth West Virginia infantry during the rebellion, and was connected with the local G. A. R. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Columbus, September 3.—Charles L. Gore, of Salem, a member of the force of the state treasury, received a telegram, announcing that his brother, Frank Gore, a native of Columbiana county, had died in Cleveland yesterday from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy. Services will be held over the remains at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Fred Fry, a daughter, at 5 Woodland avenue, East End, Cleveland. On Friday the body will be taken to Wellsville for interment. His wife, who died about two years ago, is buried there. Mr. Gore was born in Hanover a little over 65 years ago. He was a C. & P. freight engineer for nearly twenty years, leaving that work about 20 years ago. He resided in Wellsville for several years but had long lived in Cleveland, where he was employed as a moulder. His wife was Elizabeth Montgomery, of Wellsville. Six children survive.

Jacob Phillis.

AT THE THEATER

The three acts into which “David Harum” are divided are laid in Homeville, New York. In the first act Harum sells the deacon the balky horse, in the second the audience sees the pious man caught in a terrible shower behind the animal that would “stand without hitchin’,” and in the third Harum tells the story of his visit to the circus and of the whipping which followed. The play is crowned with amusing incidents and has had an overwhelming amount of success. It is said to be the most popular native play descriptive of American humor now before the public. At the Grand Saturday evening, September 6.

Vaudeville specialties in “The Way of the Wicked” are the finest even seen in a melodrama. Every player a star, every feature a sensation, every scene a triumph. More fun, more thrilling excitement, more satisfaction than in any ten other melodramas ever produced. At the Grand Sept. 4.

Cemetery Monuments.

What is more sadly comic or incongruous than the imposing medley of stone and marble in a great cemetery? The towering columns loom over the resting places of such small citizens. The “dove of peace” alights where it would never have brooded of its free will. The guardian angel bends over the vixen’s tomb, while mediocre bits of slate denote the graves of many saintly and gifted pilgrims.—Atlantic.

GREAT GROWTH OF CITY SCHOOLS

Interesting Facts Regarding East Liverpool Educators and Their Work.

THE CRY FOR MORE ROOM

All the Buildings Now Taxed to Their Utmost Capacity—The High School One of the Best—Wonderful Growth.

Between the summer and winter, When leaves are beginning to fall, Comes a pause in the cycle of pleasures Which is known to the children all.

They hear in the distance ringing, The tones of the well known bell, They are loath to forsake their pastimes, To obey its deep toned knell.

And so it is that from the various Launts of pleasure one beheld the little ones, some scarce daring to boast their six summers, enter, for the first time, the great educational arena to go to school with those whose school days are soon to be viewed with a retrospective glance.

In anticipation of that great event, the reopening of school, a great part of the vacation was occupied in the thorough renovation of all the buildings in the city. Many of the school rooms were equipped with new and modern desks, and in all the buildings changes of more or less importance had been made.

While it is impossible at this early stage in the year's work to state the exact number of pupils enrolled in the schools of the city, 2,800 is considered a safe estimate. In order to direct the instruction of these young people, 65 teachers—59 women and 7 men—have been employed for the ensuing year. There are also seven substitutes. This is quite the largest corps of teachers ever in the employ of the city schools.

That the people of the Crockery City, which is known far and wide as a bustling, business town, are realizing the necessity of more liberal education upon the part of the rising generation, as well as the acquisition of wealth, is evident from the fact that upon every side is heard the same cry for more school room. That this city has been making great strides along educational lines is due largely to the untiring efforts of Supt. R. E. Rayman. The buildings are all taxed to their fullest capacity. Especially is this so in the Central school, where the growth of the high school has required the entire second floor save two rooms to be given over to its use. The high school thus occupies six rooms for seating, two recitation rooms and two laboratory rooms.

At the present time there are enrolled in the high school 265 students. This is unprecedented in the history of the school. In the five years during which Prof. Rayman has been superintendent the increase in the high school alone has been over 75 per cent. The curriculum is much broader than it was at that time and quite a number of the studies have been made elective.

A law passed by the state legislature requires that the high schools be classified into a first and second grade. The first grade high schools are those having a four-years' course and ample apparatus for the efficient teaching of the science work in the courses. The second class comprises schools having a three-year course, etc.

State School Commissioner Bonebrake has already passed upon the high school in this city and classed it as one of the first. The course is highly satisfactory, since its graduates are received at any of the best colleges in the state.

It has been the desire of a quite a number of people to have the one session plan introduced in the city high school, as in Cleveland, where the hours are 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., with the afternoon for study and recreation, or as in the Columbus high school, which has a session lasting from 8:30 to 2:30. But this plan, while meeting the approval and convenience of a few people, would be very unpleasant to the majority on account of local reasons. It has never, therefore, even been considered by the superintendent and school authorities.

perintendent and school authorities.

A few notes about those who are to teach in the high school this year will be found interesting. The corps is composed of nine teachers. Miss Florence Updegraff has most ably occupied the position of principal for the past 12 years. She will have charge of the classes in literature. C. T. Austin will teach English. He graduated from Mt. Union with the class of '99. Miss Martha Cooper, the Latin teacher, graduated from the woman's college at Oxford, O., and later entered Wooster university. She has had several years' experience as teacher in the high school.

Miss Nell Campbell teaches geometry and advanced algebra. She took part of her work at Mt. Union and her advanced work at the University of Michigan. She has taught for four years at the Ashland high school. Miss Elma G. Martin has charge of the history work. She took her advanced work at Vassar and prepared especially for history and language work. She also gave special attention to German and French. E. E. Brooke, who teaches physics and chemistry, is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university. He has had several years' experience as teacher in the high school.

Miss Mary Andrews is a graduate from the high school in this city and has taken a special course during the past summer at Harvard. She teaches physical geography. Miss Jessie Manley, teacher in bookkeeping and freshman algebra, is also a graduate of the local high school. Miss Bertha Dunlap will have two classes in Latin. She is a graduate of the city high school and has taken special work in advanced algebra and Latin at Wooster.

A neat and complete catalogue of the city schools is nearing completion and will probably be issued the last of the month.

It is expected that the new McKinley building will be completed by the first of December and when it is, there will not be so much overcrowding.

PELEE STILL ACTIVE.

FEARS ENTERTAINED FOR PEOPLE ON MARTINIQUE ISLAND.

French Government Sends Warships to Basse-Terre to Await Further Orders.

Paris, Sept. 3.—The minister of marine, Pellatin, in view of the further eruptions of Mont Pelee, island of Martinique, has ordered the commander of the French Antilles squadron to send warships immediately to Basse-Terre, island of Guadeloupe, there to await further orders.

The minister of the colonies received yesterday an undated cable dispatch from the governor of Martinique reporting that a slight earthquake shock moved from north to south of the island during the morning of Aug. 25, and adding that the same night and the next morning violent eruptions of Mont Pelee occurred.

Kingston, St. Vincent, B. W. I., Sunday, Aug. 31.—A remarkable volcanic phenomenon occurred here between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. There was a startling series of detonations from La Soufriere, louder than any since the terrible eruption of May 11. Each explosion shook the buildings of the town. The noises were terrific.

Telegraphic reports have been received here from the islands of Grenada, Trinidad and Barbados, saying loud detonations were heard at these respective places between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. These explosions were similar to those heard when Mont Pelee, on Martinique, and La Soufriere were previously in eruption. The people of Grenada were greatly alarmed at the detonations; they were the loudest which have been heard there. The phenomenon was not attended by serious results on St. Vincent, but fears are entertained here for people on the island of Martinique, as Mont Pelee is known to be still terribly agitated, two eruptions having occurred there in the last six days.

1,060 Killed, 1,500 Injured.

Basse-Terre, Island of Guadeloupe, French West Indies, Sept. 3.—It has been learned from the gendarmes of the island of Martinique that 1,060 persons were killed and 1,500 injured during the last eruptions of Mont Pelee.

Most of the people of this city undoubtedly have laughed during the last few days in unison with practically the entire English speaking race. The cause of the merriment has been a poster, just put out by the "Force" Food Company, of which a picture is shown above.

The first time one sees this poster he thinks the bill poster must have made a mistake in putting it up. The second time he sees it he is inclined to the belief that something must have been wrong with the bill poster. After seeing it a number of times it begins to dawn upon him that perhaps it was done by design. This last conjecture is the true one, for this poster has been put up in every city of over 2,000 inhabitants in the United States, Canada, England and the rest of the United Kingdom. When you laugh at it, therefore, you may know that you are probably laughing with the greater part of the world.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS ON TRUSTS.

Defines His Attitude and Fully Answers Critics—Guest of Governor Crane.

Dalton, Mass., Sept. 3.—President Roosevelt yesterday took notice of his return visit to Massachusetts by delivering at Fitchburg another speech on the trust question in order that he might fully answer his critics and to more clearly define his attitude on the subject. He also launched into a defense of the army of the Philippines during his speech at Springfield. The impression had gone forth that any views he might express regarding the acquisition of territory by the United States would be sure to be coldly received, but the demonstrations of approval which greeted his utterances dispelled this idea.

Frequent stops again were made yesterday and at each place the president delivered a speech. Fitchburg's reception was notable for the size of the crowd and the enthusiasm which the people displayed.

In the afternoon, at Worcester, the president lunched with Senator Hoar. At Springfield another hearty greeting was given the president. The address there followed a brief visit to the national armory. On the way to train the president's carriage stopped in front of the Veterans' Memorial home and he spoke a few words to the old soldiers who had drawn up in front of the house.

At Westfield, the scene of the boyhood days of the president's secretary, a stop of half an hour was made. Applause was loud and continuous when he mentioned the secretary's name.

Governor Crane last night had the president as his guest here. Early in the morning the president and his entourage party were given a drive from Dalton to Stockbridge, passing through Pittsfield and Lenox.

FIRST ACCIDENT IN MIMIC WAR

One Man Killed, One Fatally Injured and One Seriously Injured.

Fort Wright, Fishers Island, N. Y., Sept. 3.—While the guns of the fort were firing on the fleet yesterday, Elford Roy was instantly killed by the premature discharge of a 12-inch gun. Harry A. Davis was seriously injured and a third man, Samuel Clevenger, was severely wounded. Several others suffered slight injuries. All the men were privates of the Second company, coast artillery, of the regular army.

New London, Conn., Sept. 3.—The defending force in the New London district last night were alert and awaiting an attack by the navy. At midnight no decisive move had been made by the fleet under Admiral Higginson.

The impression prevails here that Newport is the point which will be next attacked.

The defending force is all at sea in regard to the next move to be made by Admiral Higginson and every possible precaution has been taken to guard against a surprise.

NAVAL OFFICIAL SURPRISED.

Criticism of Admiral Higginson Is Unwarranted.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The officials of the navy department are surprised at the amount of criticism which has been aroused by the visit of the Duchess of Marlborough, Assistant Secretary of War Sanger and a party to Rear Admiral Higginson aboard his flagship, the Kearsarge. It is not the understanding among the officials here that Admiral Higginson invited the party to come aboard, although they see no reason why he should not have extended an invitation, as the visit was made during the "period of preparation," and not during the time when the attacking movement of the fleet had begun. Moreover, they point to precedents, cases where hospitalities and courtesies were extended to persons outside the service during actual war. When the Oregon was at Guantanamo, a large party of Red Cross nurses, among them Miss Chandler, a daughter of William A. Chandler, was taken aboard and entertained, and given a respite from the cramped quarters and the monotony of a hospital ship. There has not been, and is not apt to be, any inquiry from the navy department of Admiral Higginson concerning the matter.

Row Among Italians.

Dillonville, O., Sept. 3.—Five drunken Italians hacked and shot one another in Dominick Ozello's speakeasy until it resembled a slaughterhouse. Ozello was shot near the heart; a second Italian through the arm, and a third through the kidneys, all by one man. He also shot a fourth victim, who had already been stabbed and who was afterwards spirited away. A Slav participant was stabbed and a gash cut in his head with a hatchet. Two may die.

J. G. COTTON WAS CURED OF SCIATIC RHEUMATISM BY THE USE OF LIFE PLANT.

J. G. Cotton writes from New Philadelphia, O., the following praise for the great tonic, LIFE PLANT:—
New Philadelphia, O., Feb. 22, 1902
Life Plant Co.,
Messrs:—Last September I was attacked with sciatic rheumatism. It was so painful as to allow me to sleep very little, could not stand on my feet ten minutes at a time without severe pain. I was very much alarmed as I had the same trouble a number of years ago and was unable, though attended by the best medical skill, to get rid of it for two and a half years, during which time I could perform no labor. A friend told me that LIFE PLANT was a sure cure for rheumatism. I took two bottles and it cured me; I have had no return of it since. I am not only pleased, but surprised as well at the speedy cure.
Very truly,
J. G. COTTON.

SITUATION CRITICAL.

Miners Fired Upon by Guards
and Several Injured--Strikers
In Ugly Mood.

POCOHONTAS GUARDS DOUBLED.

It is Feared the Strikers May Make Another Attack at Any Hour.
Many Shots Fired From Ambush.
Elkhorn Region Quiet.

Bramwell, W. Va., Sept. 3.—The situation in the Flat Top coal field is extremely critical and the skirmish between the strikers and the guards at the Pocohontas Collieries company's mines yesterday, after the firing of the mine by the strikers, has greatly enraged the miners from the fact that several of their side were severely injured. Adjutant General Baker, who has been in this section for a few days looking over the territory, left at midnight Monday night for other fields, informing the operators before he left, however, that he thought the presence of the militia unnecessary at that time. The outbreak of yesterday probably will change his opinion, and it is thought here that before tonight troops will be either in the Flat Top region or on their way there. The Pocohontas Collieries company had the fire in their mine practically extinguished last night, but had doubled their force of guards, as another attack was feared any hour. Many shots have been fired from ambush in the direction of non-union miners going to and from work in the Flat Top field. The Elkhorn region is very quiet, no violence having been reported from that section yesterday.

NO CHANGE, SAYS MITCHELL.

Miners Still Stand by Demands or Will Arbitrate.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 3.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, returned from Philadelphia last evening. He stated that he was pleased with his trip and reception in the Quaker City. So far as he was aware there was no change in the strike situation. The miners were as determined as ever and did not propose to return to work until the operators granted their demands or agreed to arbitration. Mr. Mitchell said he took no stock in the reports that certain mines were in operation and were turning out a large amount of coal for the market.
The Bloss and Pettibone collieries of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company resumed operation yesterday. The breakers were running all day, but just how many men are at work in the mines and what the output of coal is not known. The officials of the company refuse to give out any information beyond the fact that they are well satisfied with the situation.

Warrants for Pay of Troops.

Harrisburg, Sept. 3.—Adjutant General Stewart issued warrants yesterday for the pay of the troops on duty in the anthracite coal region from July 31 to Aug. 31, inclusive. The warrants were forwarded to General Gobin, who is in command of the troops, and it is expected the soldiers will be paid today. The amount which the various organizations will receive follows: General Gobin and staff, $2,664.81; Governor's Troop, $3,435.28; Eighth regiment, $32,350.56; Fourth regiment, $6,640.84; Twelfth regiment, $36,648.99. Total, $81,740.48.

Last to Be Shipped.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 2.—Another train of cars loaded with anthracite coal left yesterday from the Silver Creek shaft, near New Philadelphia owned and operated by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. Strike leaders claim to have information that this is the last coal to be shipped from this operation until after the strike is declared off.

A Tour of California is Being Made
—East Liverpool Lady in the Party.

The following item of local interest is found in the Redlands (Cal.) Review of recent date:

"D. Vincent and wife of Los Angeles, accompanied by Miss Anna Gardner of East Liverpool, Ohio, arrived in the city last night and stopped over night at the Windsor hotel. They are traveling on an automobile and are enjoying their trip very much. Mr. Vincent is an enthusiast on automobiles and has a fine machine, a White. It is propelled by steam power generated by gasoline.

"They left Los Angeles yesterday morning and took it easy, visiting Stoddard's camp, near Ontario, and having lunch in the canyon. They will take a trip over the Heights and around Redlands before starting on to Riverside. Mr. Vincent took a run to Idylwild last month, and says that he found no difficulty in climbing the hills around Strawberry valley, and that since having this machine, for the past five months, he has not had a repair on it. Miss Gardner is from the East, and is being shown the beauties of California in this charming way, the party moving at the rate of 100 miles per day."

CHANGE IN PLANS.

General Miles' Philippine Inspection
Tour Delayed.

Washington, Sept. 3.—A change has been made in the plans of Lieutenant General Miles, as announced last week. It was expected originally that he would leave on his tour of inspection of the Philippines today and sail from San Francisco on the transport Thomas on the 16th. The pressure of work in his office at present is so great, however, that he finds he will not be able to leave Washington before next Wednesday.

General Miles has called a special meeting of the army board on ordnance and fortification for Sept. 9, at which time it will begin the preparation of its report and recommendations upon the subject of a new field gun for the army. The date named has been selected in order to insure the attendance of those members of the board who are at present engaged in the joint manoeuvres. It is the understanding that General Miles in person will direct the work of the board, and in case the report is not drafted quickly his departure from Washington will be delayed until later in the month.

A NEW PITCHER WAS IN THE BOX

This helps to Explain the Slaughter of the East Liverpool Baseball Team.

CHALLIS DID HIS LEVEL BEST

But Was Not Strong Enough — The Visitors Got Eighteen Hits—It Was an Off Day, All Around, for the Home Team.

If there is a manager between the oceans that has poorer luck in trying out amateur twirlers than Charley Walsh he will confer a favor by putting out his flag. Mr. Walsh is a kind hearted gentleman, believing always in giving the would-be experts a chance, but it is now quite time for him to cut out a little of his philanthropy. The enormous crowd that assembled to see the game became completely disgusted in the early part of the contest and kept the air blue with warm remarks. And they were all about the gentleman who has the game in charge.

Challis is from New Cumberland. He had better return and keep clear of the East Liverpool ball circles. He gave the Parkersburg team as many hits as he is years old—18 all told. He is a lanky fellow and is built well. But when that is said the story is told. Please, Mr. Walsh, let the youngsters practice a little before giving them a chance. You will not lose by it. Of course, the lad was somewhat against it in having so strong a team to back. But more than likely he would have met with a similar experience had it been the Hookstown aggregation.

At no time during the present baseball season has the park been in a better condition. Fast ball can be played upon that diamond, and if any other kind is witnessed the cause must be credited to a person other than the grounds. Perhaps the assertion is too broad. There is yet plenty of room for improvement in the outfield. Had this part of the park been in condition no home run would have been credited to the visitors. The ball was knocked only a short distance out into left field. But it was far enough. Poor List, who played one of the prettiest games of the year, went fishing among the weeds for it, but to no avail. Maag finally ran to his assistance and made the find, but too late. The man had scored and let in two runs.

It was really an off day for the home boys. Reark and Heckathorn each got an error. When they fall down the goose is generally cooked. The man in the box loses heart, too. That did not occur with Challis, however.

It is only necessary to give in detail the first inning. The remainder were so bad that it would be a waste of time. Johnson, first man up, got first on an error by Davis. Adamson got the same on the same by Heckathorn. Elston went out from first to third. Klintworth was hit. O'Neil singled. Myers walked on fielder's choice and O'Neil and Farson scored on a fly ball knocked by Donovan and scored on by Reark.

The locals started off in fine shape. Maag met one for a two-bagger and Reark followed it with a single. List got there on fielder's choice and the first two scored on a two-bagger placed by Heckathorn. List finally covered the bag, making the score nearer than ever afterwards.

The McCarron brothers must now go way back. Dennis showed his ability recently and Hugh certainly gave an exhibition of his qualities yesterday. There is no doubt that both mean to do the fair thing by everyone, but they somehow can not do it. The sympathy of the crowd was with Hugh for awhile. Then it turned. It was more than could be patiently tolerated. Even the local players made a kick. Double plays were much in evidence. Donovan and Myers handled one. Adamson, Farson and Myers another and Davis and Heckathorn another.

A New Firm.

A partnership has been formed between William W. Sloan and Jacob Stein, two of East Liverpool's most successful and energetic young business men. Mr. Stein has been the leading dry goods merchant for several years, and the concern, by reason of the partnership, will be enlarged and made still more important. The establishment will then be among the largest in this section, and with the additional facilities will be amply able to handle the immense patronage in a more satisfactory manner.

William W. Sloan is well known to East Liverpool people, having spent the greater portion of his life among them. Several years ago he associated himself with a local hardware firm. So well did he manage his affairs that it was but a short time until he became part owner of the large business. From that time to the present he has demonstrated by hard work and close application, that he is qualified to take his place among the leading business men of the city. A future of unbounded success is predicted for the new firm.

Pastor Owens' Return—Rev. Oscar L. Owens returned today from his vacation, which he spent in Virginia and in New York. He will be present at the prayer meeting of the Baptist church this evening. On Friday Mr. Owens leaves to preach the annual sermon before the Zoar association, which meets at Bethesda, O.

His Mother Dead—Chief Thompson received a telegram last evening from the chief of police of Pittsburgh asking that a piano player, Walter Snowden by name, be located and informed of the news of his mother's death, which occurred yesterday morning. Snowden was soon found and apprised of the sad intelligence. He left this morning to attend the funeral.

Fruit Thieves Scared—Stealing fruit, such as grapes and pears from the yard of William Dunn, of Sixth street, is not according to law, and a number of small boys have found that out. Mr. Dunn has been troubled much of late by small boys coming in to his yard and stealing fruit, and in order to give the youngsters a good scare he called an officer. The officer lay in wait for a few minutes last evening, the boys came and he seized them. They promised not to enter the yard again.

Odd Place For a Serpent.

In Alsace recently a four-year-old child, the daughter of a workman, became very ill one day, but speedily recovered, and for some days afterward dismayed her parents by eating a good deal more than a child of that age is wont to eat.

Instead, however, of growing fatter, the girl grew thinner, and doctors who were summoned to attend her were unable to explain why the food did her no good. Finally the riddle was solved, for a serpent about twenty inches in length issued one morning from the child's mouth.

The serpent was killed and sent to the University of Strassburg, and since then the little one has enjoyed excellent health. It is supposed that the child swallowed the serpent while drinking some impure water.

Butterflies That Fly High.

Both in the Himalayas and in the Andes butterflies have been found at heights ranging up to 16,000 feet, and in the Alps they are quite common at 9,000 feet. The very highest elevation so far observed is 16,626 feet, where they were found by M. Bonpland on the slopes of Chimborazo. Sir J. D. Hooker found butterflies on the slopes of the Himalayas at about the same height. He speaks of "the amazing quantity of superb butterflies, many large tropical swallowtails, black, with a scarlet eye on the wings." The South American high flying butterflies belong to the family of Colia dimera, the Asiatic that of the Pieris callidice. The explorer, Sir Martin Conway, also found them at high altitudes in the Himalayas.

Bagby's Way.

"Bagby telephoned me when that heavy shower came on last night."

"What did he want?"

"He wanted to borrow an umbrella."

"Why did he telephone?"

"He wanted me to bring it over to his house."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Lengthening a Bee's Tongue.

Man is often blamed for driving to extinction many sorts of beautiful creatures, but the account is far more than balanced by the amount of good he has done for those animals which proved useful and could be tamed.

Take the case of the bee. The bee lives by its tongue, with which organ it is able to extract the honey from flowers. Now, a bee's tongue is naturally about a twenty-fifth of an inch long. Clever beekeepers, by keeping only those bees with naturally long tongues, have succeeded in lengthening the tongues of a number of bee colonies to the extent of another hundredth of an inch. It does not sound much, but it enables those insects to do a quarter as much work again in the same time.

Man has done more than this for bees. He has given them ready made homes, where they are safe from wasps and other enemies; frames for making their combs without using large quantities of wax for outside walls, and food during flowerless weather.

Saving the Money.

In a certain parish in Scotland collectors were going round soliciting contributions for the kirk. On coming to a wretched little hovel they hesitated whether or not to enter, but finally decided to "try their luck." A hale old man greeted them, and to him they explained their errand, but he really had nothing to give them, he said.

"Can't ye giv' us your whisky?" one of the visitors asked. "No," he said, "I don't drink 'whisky.'" Perhaps then he could forego the pleasures of snuff. No, he didn't use snuff.

The collectors prepared to move on. "Stop a bit!" cried the old fellow. "I pay Sandy, the barber, twopenny every Saturday night for shaving me. Tell the minister he can have the twopenny if he'll come and shave me himself."

The Student's Prayer.

There was long ago a divinity hall presided over by a most amiable and dignified professor. On certain days the senior students opened the proceedings of the day with prayer. One morning a raw youth from a remote region performed this duty, and it was a memorable occasion. None who were present can forget how the venerable professor turned and gazed on the untutored lad, who prayed for him as follows: "Lord, have mercy on our professor, for he is weak and ignorant. Strengthen his feeble hands, confirm his tottering knees, and grant that he may go out and in before us like the goat before the flock."—"Twenty-five Years of St. Andrews."

An Oversight.

Sue—So you don't like that novel?

Belle—No; it says the heroine "wore an air of mystery, a dark frown," etc., but it doesn't describe the costume she wore one bit.—Chicago News.
